$19,957 Grant Received for Economic Education

A $19,957 grant has been awarded to the College by the National Science Foundation in support of a program sponsored by the Center for Economics Education of the College to provide economics education for elementary and secondary teachers for use in the classroom.

The project, entitled "Pre-College Teacher Development," is under the direction of Jim Charkins, Asst. Prof., Economics.

"Constant references by the media to recession, unemployment and inflation, and increasing grocery bills, energy bills, etc. have all brought economics closer to home. Realizing this, teachers are becoming more aware of the need for economics education in the classrooms," states Dr. Charkins.

Funds from the grant will be used to teach kindergarten through 12th grade teachers in the local area how to teach economics in their classrooms. The teachers trained in summer courses form a core for economics education activities held on and off the campus throughout the academic year.

This is the second NSF grant awarded for the study of economics education. Last year $10,507 was granted for a project, "Pre-College Development in Science," also under the direction of Dr. Charkins.

Mike Vax Guest Trumpeter

More than 300 high school students are expected to attend the day-long clinic and will perform before a panel of experts.

Highlighting the day's events, the Cal State Jazz Ensemble with Mike Vax will present a program of popular works at 8:15 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

Both the clinic and evening concert are open to all at no charge.

Mr. Vax, who has been leader of the Dukes of Dixieland and played lead trumpet with the Stan Kenton Orchestra, will give a morning and afternoon performance for the high school visitors attending the clinic. He will focus his presentation on jazz performance and playing techniques.

For the evening concert, the Jazz Ensemble, directed by Keating Johnson, will perform several selections with the noted trumpeter. Some of the pieces include "When You're Smiling," "I Can't Give You Anything But Love," and "Sassy."
"THE PUB" BEGINS  TGIF takes on additional meaning today with the opening of the Friday afternoon specials offered at The Pub.

Happy Hour will be from 3 to 6 p.m. and will offer contests, entertainment and reduced prices on some beverages.

APPLICATIONS BEING TAKEN  The proposed 1980-81 Board of Trustees budget provides 19 positions for the Administrative Fellows Program.

Appointments as fellows are contingent upon funds being provided in the 1980-81 final budget as approved by the Legislature and signed by the Governor. However, because of the time factor, applications are being taken now.

The Administrative Fellows program offers an opportunity for career advancement in administration to both academic and administrative personnel who have a tenure/permanent or probationary position. Women and ethnic minorities are particularly encouraged to apply.

Fellows will normally be assigned to a campus other than their own. They will receive their regular salary, vacation and retirement benefits as if they were at their regular position.

Deadline for applying is February 19, 1980. For further information, contact the office of Associate Dean of Academic Affairs, AD-109, Ext. 7510.

FACULTY INVITED TO CONTRIBUTE  In 1976, with the observance of the CSUC 15th Anniversary and dedication of the new headquarters, Chancellor Dumke noted that a special section of the CSUC Library was being set aside in honor of the CSUC faculty. Faculty were invited to contribute autographed copies of one or more books or other publications they had authored while on a CSUC campus since July, 1961.

Chancellor Dumke recently wrote to all campuses to remind faculty that the invitation is still open on a continuing basis. He wants to bring to the attention of all faculty, particularly newcomers who may not know of it, that contributions are still being welcomed and will continue to be so.

Books to be contributed should be mailed directly to the CSUC Library with a note identifying them for this purpose.

"THE CASTLE," GERMAN RELEASE, NEXT FOREIGN FILM  The Foreign Film Festival continues tomorrow night with the 1969 German release "The Castle," starring Maximilian Schell. The film will be shown at 7 p.m. in PS-10, free of charge. Filmed in German and dubbed into English, the movie is based on the novel by Franz Kafka.

The castle has summoned Schell from his home. His services are evidently not needed, but he is forbidden to leave town. He attempts to unravel the mystery of the castle and find out what it wants with him.
Musical Production, "Robber Bridegroom," Being Staged

The College is staging the first musical ever to be presented on campus.

The sounds of a country string band, hoedowns and high jinks and the legendary characters of the Mississippi Territory will be brought to life in the musical comedy "The Robber Bridegroom," opening in the Theatre Thursday, February 28.

This production marks the first time the College's Music and Theatre Arts Departments have combined efforts in a major production.

Co-directors for the musical are Amanda Sue Rudisill, Professor of Theatre Arts, and Loren Filbeck, Associate Professor of Music.

Set in hillbilly America, this light-hearted and lusty folk-opera, seasoned with the sounds of bluegrass, comes from the novel by Eudora Welty, who mixes Southern romance with the Gothic fairy tale.

Other performances are set for February 29, March 1, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8. Tickets for CSCSB staff and faculty are $2, students and senior citizens $1.50. General admission is $3.

Tickets go on sale February 18. Call Theatre Arts Dept. for information.

New Art Show Ranges From Traditional to Adventurous

The opening reception for the new art show in The Gallery is set for Monday evening, February 11 at 7:30. The College and the public are invited.

The exhibit which brings a new awareness of the many different creations possible with craft materials features 60 works by 21 noted Southern California artists.

Titled "Recent Work in Clay, Glass, Metal, Fiber and Wood from Southern California," the show contains selections which range from the traditional utilitarian to the adventurous and decorative, which attempt to open new aesthetic territories, explained Roger Lintault, Prof., Art, who is arranging the exhibit.

Ski Film Festival Coming Feb. 13

Seven short color films, ranging from powder skiing in Wyoming to an inside look at the life of a professional ski racer, will be featured in the College's Ski Film Festival Wednesday, February 13.

Screening of the films, 14 to 27 minutes long, will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the SUMP. Students, faculty and staff as well as the public are invited to attend at no charge. Included in the seven films is "Go For It", considered one of the most exciting ski films ever made.

CSCSB Weather Station Reports on Rainfall

Marvin Frost, Asst. Prof., Geog., reports that during the month of January 16.2 inches of rain fell on campus. That, added to the rainfall from July to January, brings the total rainfall to date to 20.35 inches. January rainfall in 1979 was 5.04 inches.

In San Bernardino the average annual rainfall over a 102-year period is 16.3 inches.
