ANNUAL JURIED STUDENT ART SHOW OPENS TONIGHT

More than 100 works of "exceptional quality" will be displayed in the annual juried student art show which opens in the Gallery this evening with a reception at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend at no charge.

At the reception the art club will award four cash prizes to the entries chosen as best in show.

Works in all media by 53 students have been selected for the exhibit by the faculty. A 5 1/2 foot wooden whistle, an entryway door featuring stained glass window, and a sculpture of three miniature dog houses are among a few of the works.

The show also contains paintings, photographs, drawings, prints, commercial graphics and works in ceramic, glass and wood.

"The quality of work in this year's show is very high," said Dr. Julius Kaplan, chairman of the art department. "Personally I'm very impressed by the variety of work in all media."

The Gallery will be open tomorrow for commencement between 10:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Hours through the summer will be Monday-Friday from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1-3 p.m. During the month of July the Gallery will be open from 1-3 p.m. only.

REGISTRATION FOR SUMMER SESSION IS THIS MONDAY

Registration for summer session will be held Monday, June 16. Two summer sessions offering a wide variety of traditional courses are planned.

The regular session is a five-week program with classes running from June 18-July 22. The post-session is three weeks long from July 22-August 15.

The following numbers will be installed in P.E. 100 for registration, June 16:

COMMENCEMENT IS TOMORROW AT 9 A.M. ON THE LAWN SOUTH OF THE P.E. COMPLEX
Traditionally the Bulletin has dedicated a year-ending issue to the graduating class. In this edition, the tradition is continued with a sampling of what recent graduates will be doing with their new degree.

Linda Strahan (Education) has received a doctoral fellowship for Claremont Graduate School where she will pursue a Ph.D. in English.

The following students will go on to graduate school for advanced degrees in economics: Jeffrey Ward, Virginia Polytechnic Institute, assistantship; Lynn Phelps, University of New Mexico, assistantship; Scott Wisner, University of Iowa, assistantship; Pat Clarke, University of Iowa, scholarship.

Victoria Alvarez (Geography) has accepted an assistantship to the University of Colorado, Boulder, where she will begin working on her M.A. in the fall. Gary Green (Geography) will pursue his M.A. at Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg, VA, with an assistantship.

Susan Jo Miller (Mathematics) has been accepted into the master's program in computer science at the University of Arizona.

Eric Nelson (Chemistry) has been accepted into the master's program in chemistry at Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo. D. Steven Meyering (Chemistry) will begin working on his doctorate in chemistry at the University of California, Riverside this fall.

Michael DeSantis (Administration) has accepted a position with Aetna Casualty. David Bobbitt and Mark Heidenreich (Administration) have joined the firm of Eadie and Payne as staff accountants. Cindy Pittman (Administration) is a staff accountant with Lester Witte and Co. Stormy Thibodeaux (Administration) will become a staff accountant with Brannfors, White and Rogers. Brenda Maddox (Administration) will enter the Master of Business Administration program at Cal State.

Ruby Beale (Psychology) has received a four-year fellowship to the University of Michigan where she will pursue her Ph.D.

Ken Hazelton (Art) will attend the University of Villa Schifanoia in Florence, Italy to do graduate work.

Martha Bahia and Ilse Kolbus (Health Science) are working for the Riverside County Department of Environmental Health as sanitary trainees. Sandy Wallace and Lystra Curley (Health Science) have accepted positions with the Inland Counties Health Systems Agency. Sherry McClatchy (Health Science) will enter the M.S. program in industrial hygiene at Cal State, Northridge. Dave Gfeller and Terri Smith (Health Science) will enter the special master's program in health science at Cal State.

Two resource grants, totalling $684, have been awarded to the college by the chancellor's office to support a project on the improvement of academic advising. Dr. Lynda Warren (Psychology) received the original grant to train staff, such as department secretaries, to become more effective in advising students. The latest funds will purchase additional roldex files for the information system and 1981 Occupational Outlook Handbooks to help build career counseling libraries in each department office.
