MARCH FONG EU TO SPEAK HERE

Secretary of State March Fong Eu will speak Wednesday noon in the Recital Hall. Ms. Eu will discuss her seven years as the state's highest-ranking woman and highest-ranking minority official. She is rumored to be considering becoming a candidate for governor or lieutenant governor in the next state election.

Ms. Eu was elected secretary of state in 1974 and re-elected by a substantial margin in 1978. Before that, she was a member of the state Assembly where she became known for her fight against pay toilets in government buildings. More recently, she was one of the state's more outspoken critics of President Carter's concession speech being broadcast before the California polls had closed.

Her appearance is sponsored by the Associated Students and the Political Science Club.

SCHOOL VIOLENCE LECTURE TOPIC

School violence is the topic of a lecture to be presented at 8 p.m., Wednesday in PS 10 by Dr. Robert J. Rubel, director of research at the Institute of Criminal Justice Studies at Southwest Texas University.

In the last six years, Dr. Rubel has given 11 major presentations on school crime and violence at national conferences throughout the country and has written numerous articles for educational and professional journals on student violence and crime, crime prevention programs, victimization and vandalism.

The Institute of Criminal Justice Studies is made up of three grant-funded criminal justice-related programs, the Texas Crime Prevention Institute, the Texas Center for Juvenile Delinquency Prevention and the National Center for Community Crime Prevention. Dr. Rubel has been director of research since 1979.

VOLUNTEERS SOUGHT FOR OPEN HOUSE

WANTED: members of the Cal State community who like to cook, bake or greet people. EXPERIENCE NEEDED: none. QUALIFICATIONS: ability to participate in college's Open House Sunday, April 26.

Dr. Fred Newton, chair of the special events committee, is seeking entrants and judges for the chili cook-off and the pie bake-off. Prizes will be awarded. Participants should call Dr. Newton at the Psychology Department.

Mary Williams, co-chair of the staffing/tours/arrangements committee, is seeking volunteers (faculty, staff, students) to serve as information hosts and as tour guides. She can be reached at the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences.
Announcements for the college Open House, set for Sunday, April 26, are now available for faculty, staff and students to use in inviting friends, business associates and prospective students to attend the festivities on campus. A sample is attached to today's Bulletin. Additional copies are available from the Public Affairs Office. Personal notes of invitation can be written on the announcement. The addressed invitations may be placed in office mail bags.

A Spanish documentary, "Caudillo--The History of the Spanish Civil War," is next in the foreign film series. It will be shown at 7 p.m., tomorrow in PS 10.

The Spanish Civil War is considered the first act of World War II. Superpowers and would-be superpowers tested their weapons, their resolve and their margin of risk on the land and blood of Spain. Writers like George Orwell, Ernest Hemingway and Pablo Neruda fought in the conflict.

The Placement Center and Counseling Center will again sponsor a series of four interviewing workshops called "Asserting Yourself in the Job Interview." The workshops will be conducted from 3-4:30 p.m. on successive Tuesdays starting April 14. All CSCSB students are eligible to attend. Registrations should be made in person with the Counseling Center or by phoning Ext. 7437.

Dr. Greg Price (Physical Education and Recreation) took the low gross honors in the recent spring golf tournament, rather than Dr. Reg Price (also Physical Education and Recreation) as was reported in last week's Bulletin.

CSCSB has received a grant of $1,000 from the Chancellor's Office to assist in the production and distribution of a newsletter for teachers of writing. The newsletter, which was conceived by Dr. Helene Koon, professor of English, capsules information from diverse journals, contains a bibliography of available materials, short articles by authorities on the subject and tips for teachers, plus other information.

A sample newsletter, "Writing Across Disciplines," funded through the National Endowment for the Humanities, is being distributed nationally. Dr. Koon hopes the newsletter can be kept alive as a twice-yearly effort by acquiring funding from various sources.
ASSOCIATES SEEK BOOK DONATIONS

The Cal State Associates are seeking donations of books to be sold by the organization during the April 26 Open House. Proceeds will help fund the Associates' various projects serving the campus community. The Associates will accept new or used books.

Donations should be left on the fifth floor of the Library in the area to the rear of the Continuing Education offices. Receipts will be provided for anyone who makes a request through Dr. Judy Rymer (Education).

Books should be left by next Wednesday so librarians Johnnie Ralph and Pola Patterson can price them for the sale.

ALTHEA WAITES TO GIVE RECITAL

Althea Waites, lecturer in music, will present a piano recital of classical and contemporary music at 8:15 p.m., Wednesday in the Recital Hall. Selections from Mozart, Brahms and Chopin will share the program with five short piano pieces by Dr. Richard Saylor, professor of music. The featured selection will be Brahms' Trio in B major, which will be the second half of the program. Performing with Waites will be Carol Cheek, on violin, a violin instructor, and Michele Tachia, cello, a CSCSB graduate in music.

The other program selections are Mozart's Fantasy and Fugue in C major and Chopin's Polonaise-Fantasy, Opus 61. The recital is part of the Faculty Artist Series of the Music at Cal State program. Tickets are $2 general admission and $1 for students with identification and children.

HEALTH CENTER SETS ANOTHER BLOOD DRIVE

The Health Center will sponsor a blood drive from 10 a.m.-3 p.m., April 23. An announcement on when and where to set appointments will be made soon.

NEWMAN CLUB SETS DISCUSSION SERIES

The Newman Club is sponsoring a series of noon discussions on topics of morality and religion. Each session starts at noon Tuesday in the Student Union Senate Chambers and is repeated the following Thursday at 10 a.m. in Student Union Meeting Room A.

Next Tuesday's discussion will be on "Morality of Sex and Other Issues." Other programs include "Morality Continued," April 28; "El Salvador: Is There a Moral Issue?" May 5; "War and World Hunger," May 12; "Feminism in Society and Religion," May 19; and "Many Religions--One God?," May 26.

FACULTY MEMBER SINGS IN INDIAN CELEBRATION

Dr. Richard Saylor (Music) was the only westerner invited to participate in the South Indian Society of Southern California celebration of the music of Tyajaraja Aradhana, an Indian composer. South Indians hold annual week-long festivals during which Aradhana's music is played all day every day in the composer's memory. Dr. Saylor sang an Aradhana composition as his part in the festival.
Dr. Michael Clarke (Public Administration) and Dr. Sheldon Kamieniecki (Political Science) presented a paper, "Organization Theory, Evaluation Research and the Effectiveness of Citizen Advisory Bodies," at the Western Political Science Association meeting in Denver March 23. The paper has also been accepted for the publication by the International Journal of Public Administration.
