STEINS APPOINTED

Dr. Robert Stein and his wife, Veronika, have been appointed as Danforth Associates for a five-year term beginning in June. Dr. Stein, who has been at Cal State since 1967, is chairman of the Math Department.

The Danforth Foundation is a national, educational philanthropy, dedicated to enhancing the human dimensions of life. Its activities traditionally emphasize the theme of improving the quality of teaching and learning. Associates work directly with students in an effort to improve student-faculty relations.

This year the Foundation appointed 531 Danforth Associates throughout the United States. More than 8500 persons in all academic fields from more than 1000 colleges and universities participate in the program.

CAP AND GOWN ORDERS

Students and faculty may begin placing orders May 4 at the Bookstore for caps and gowns for commencement. The 1981 graduation ceremonies will be June 13.

Rental of cap, gown and tassel for seniors will be $10.50. Students receiving graduate degrees will pay $22.50 for their cap, gown, tassel and hood. If master's candidates need only a hood, the rental fee will be $11.50. Students may keep their tassels as souvenirs.

Faculty also may rent their regalia from the Bookstore. The complete outfit of master's or doctoral cap, gown and hood will be $14.50. Faculty who need only a hood or a gown will pay $8.50 for either one. The Bookstore will order hoods with appropriate school colors for faculty.

ALL SYSTEMS ARE GO

Final arrangements are being completed for the college's Open House this coming Sunday. Faculty, staff and students will be on hand to greet the expected several thousand visitors from the community.

The Activities Office still is seeking assistance from volunteers to be information aides, who will distribute programs, answer questions, provide directions and welcome the visitors. Each person working a two and a half to three-hour shift will receive a free T-shirt, designed for the Open House.

Tickets for the raku ceremony and luncheon ($5 per person) and the barbecue ($3.50 each) are on sale today at the Student Union desk and the Activities Office (SS 122). The Art Gallery desk also has tickets for the raku lunch.
