MORE THAN 900 GRADUATES TO RECEIVE DIPLOMAS JUNE 13

Approximately 950 seniors and graduate students will be eligible to participate in the college's 15th annual commencement exercises Saturday, June 13. More than 500 are expected for the ceremony at 9 a.m. on the lawn south of the gymnasium.

A member of the CSUC Board of Trustees, Wallace Albertson, will be part of this year's platform party. The participating clergyman will be Rabbi Hillel Cohn of Congregation Emanu El, whose wife, Rita, is receiving her master's degree.

Faculty members escorting the graduates, faculty and platform party this year will be: Dr. Judith Rymer, faculty marshal; Dr. Frances Berdan, student marshal, and Leo Doyle, college marshal. A Wind Ensemble, directed by Keating Johnson, will provide music.

The Alumni Assn. again has arranged for a commercial photographer to take pictures of all graduates receiving their diplomas from President John M. Pfau. Following the ceremony, everyone is invited to the traditional reception in the gymnasium and to the student art show in the Art Gallery.

Two Department Chairs Named

Dr. Loren Filbeck will chair the Music Department for a three-year term beginning in September. Dr. Julius Kaplan has been reappointed for a three-year term as chair of the Art Department.

Dr. Filbeck, associate professor of music and director of the Concert Choir and Chamber Singers, came to Cal State in 1972. He holds a doctorate in choral music from the University of Illinois. Dr. Kaplan, associate professor of art, came to Cal State in 1977. He received his doctorate in art history from Columbia University.

Steppenwolf, Last Foreign Film

"Steppenwolf," based on Herman Hesse's Nobel Prize-winning novel, is the last in the current Foreign Film Series. It will be shown at 7 p.m., tomorrow in PS 10. The movie is about one man's desperate internal struggle to find peace within himself. Max Von Sydow stars as the loner torn between bourgeois respectability and bestial antisocial impulses. The film is free and open to the public.

Fall Extension Program Course Proposals Due

The fall extension program is being scheduled. All course proposals for consideration must be submitted to the Office of Continuing Education by Monday, June 15. Instructors interested in offering a program scheduled in the past or in developing a new one are asked to contact that office as soon as possible. Forms are available at the office, but completion of the form does not guarantee that a course will be scheduled.

Andromedan!

The free premiere of "Andromedan!" is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Saturday, in the Recital Hall. Produced by O.P. Hadlock (Theater Arts), the film includes special effects and the acting talents of 18 staff, students and faculty, including Dr. Irving Buchen (Humanities), and Dr. William Slout and Dr. Amanda Sue Rudisill (Theatre Arts). An original score of electronic music was created by Philip West (Music). Dress will be semi-formal.
IN SYMPATHY

The college extends its condolences to the family of Mel Cooper, who died May 30 when the Loma Linda Medical Center helicopter he was piloting crashed near Beaumont. A resident of Rialto, Mr. Cooper received his master of business administration from Cal State, San Bernardino in June 1980.

UNI PHI GIVES ANNUAL AWARDS

The Uni Phi Club has announced the recipients of four awards given to individuals in recognition of their contributions on behalf of students with disabilities.

Graduate student Weldon Sutton received the Anita Hallberg Award recognizing him as a student whose enthusiasm, determination and successful educational achievement are a model for students with extreme physical limitations. Student JoAnn Hartzog was recipient of the Barbara Sovereign Award, given in recognition of creativity and leadership qualities which best represent the positive image of a disabled person.

Dr. James Person (Education) received the Frank Lootens Award, given to staff, faculty or student whose work behind the scenes has been a positive force for students with disabilities. Dr. Patrick Mullen (Education) received the Fred Kellers Award, recognizing him as a faculty member who has been respectfully sensitive and accommodating to the classroom needs of students with disabilities.
