Purchasing Ability Still Frozen

All purchasing by the campus is still at a halt, as a result of the executive order issued by the governor last Friday. In the order, effective through June 30, all agencies under the control of the governor were directed to cease issuing purchasing requisitions of any nature. Travel also was ordered cut by 10 percent. A hiring and promotion freeze was instituted. The campus is awaiting clarification from the chancellor's office on the restrictions imposed on spending for the balance of the fiscal year.

Nonresident Tuition To Go Up In 1982-83

Nonresident tuition will increase to $70 per unit, beginning in September. A student taking a full load of 15 units next year will pay $3,150 for the year. An additional $70 per unit will be charged for units over 15.

The tuition rate is identical for undergraduates and graduates.

This year, the tuition is $63 per unit, a total of $2,835 per year for 15 units, with $63 also charged for each unit over 15. During the 1980-81 academic year, the charge was $45 per unit, with no extra charge for units over 15, or a total of $2,025.

Harpsichordist, Baritone To Present Music by Bach

The music of Johan Sebastian Bach will be presented in a concert by harpsichordist Phyllis Benson assisted by baritone Loren Filbeck at 8:15 p.m., Sunday, in the Recital Hall. General admission is $3, students $1.50.

Mrs. Benson, who teaches here and at San Bernardino Valley College, will play movements from "Toccata in E Minor" and "Partita in C Minor." Dr. Filbeck, chair of the Music Department, will sing arias from "The Anna Magdalena Buchlein," as well as "So oft ich mein Tobachspfelle." Other selections include "Prelude and Fugue in G Major" and "Chromatische Fantasie and Fugue in D Minor."

'Hello, Dolly' Featured During Free Collegiate Chorus Concert

Music from "Hello, Dolly" will be featured in a free concert by the Collegiate Chorus at 3 p.m., Sunday, in the Recital Hall.

The chorus, which will perform light popular music, new spirituals and some classical compositions, is composed of staff, people from the community and about 50 students. The Saxophone Ensemble will share in the program during selections by Bach and Wagner. The Collegiate Chorus is directed by Dr. Loren Filbeck and graduate assistant Patrick Sieben.
Fall quarter will conclude with the last day of finals next Wednesday. Faculty are reminded that grades are due next Friday, March 26. The Commons, Library, Bookstore, Student Union and Physical Education and Recreation Building will go on altered schedules for finals and quarter break.

The Commons will close after dinner Wednesday, March 24 and reopen for dinner Tuesday, March 30.

The Library will be open, as usual, until 5 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday, and noon to 8 p.m., Sunday. A special 11 p.m. closing has been set for Monday and Tuesday next week. Wednesday, the Library will close at 10 p.m. During quarter break, Thursday, March 25 through Sunday, April 4, the Library will be closed weekends and open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday-Friday.

The Bookstore will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday-Thursday, and 8:30 a.m.-1 p.m., Friday, except Wednesday and Thursday, March 31 and April 1, when it will be open until 7 p.m. During the first week of classes for spring quarter, Monday-Thursday, April 5-8, special hours will be 8:30 a.m.-8:30 p.m.

The Student Union will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Thursday, March 25-Friday, April 2, but closed on weekends as usual. As of April 5, it will return to its 8 a.m.-midnight schedule.

The Physical Education Building will be open 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m. today and next Monday-Wednesday. The gymnasium will be open 1-5 p.m., tomorrow and Sunday. The building will close Thursday and reopen for recreational use Monday, April 5. The courts will be open 4-9 p.m. daily.

The Spring Information Fair, the college orientation program for new students, will be from 7 to 9 p.m., Monday, March 29 in the Student Union.

This orientation session is designed to answer questions about registration, academic regulations, student services and other areas of immediate concern to new students.

Faculty are requested to encourage incoming students to register for the Information Fair by stopping at New Student Services, SS 103, or calling the office at Ext. 7608.

Congratulations go to Peggy (Admissions and Records) and Jon Kindschy on the birth of their son. Christian Warner Kindschy weighed 8 lbs., 9 1/2 oz. when he was born March 5.
