STATE CONTROLLER TO CANCEL SOME VOLUNTARY DEDUCTIONS

To comply with the Higher Education Employer-Employee Relations Act (HEERA), the State Controller's Office will cancel various voluntary payroll deductions of employees in bargaining units for which exclusive representation has been certified. The changes will be effective this pay period.

Units with exclusive representatives are physicians (Unit 1), operations support services (Unit 5), skilled crafts (Unit 6), clerical and administrative support services (Unit 7) and public safety officers and investigators (Unit 8).

For employees in these groups, payroll deductions for membership dues in an employee organization will be made only for the exclusive representative. Payroll deductions for insurance/benefit programs will be made for programs sponsored by the exclusive representative, but not for programs sponsored by organizations which are not the exclusive representative.

Health and dental insurance and tax shelter annuities offered through the state as employee benefits will not be affected. Nonrepresented employees also will not be affected.

The decision as to whether a unit will be considered a "closed shop," in which employees within the unit automatically are made members of the unit's certified organization, or "open shop," in which employees may choose whether to belong to the organization, will be made during contract negotiations between each exclusive bargaining organization and the systemwide Employee Relations Office.

JAPANESE KOTO CONCERT PERFORMANCE WEDNESDAY

Yoko Itō Gates will present a concert on the koto at 8:15 p.m., Wednesday in the Recital Hall as part of the Music at Cal State series. General admission is $5, student $2. She also will conduct a master class for students from 2-4 p.m., Wednesday in the Recital Hall.

The koto is a Japanese zither with 13 strings of equal length and thickness stretched with equal tension over 13 movable bridges. Ms. Gates began studying koto at age five. While at the Tokyo University of Arts, she studied koto, shamisen and Japanese music history. Upon graduation, she was awarded the Japanese National Broadcasting Company’s Young Artist Award. Since her arrival in the United States in 1969, she has toured extensively, giving recitals, lectures and workshops on the music and culture of Japan.

She has taught at the University of Washington, San Francisco State University, San Diego State University and the Center For World Music in Berkeley, California.
Guest Lecturer To Speak On Films By European Immigrants

The work of Central European exiles in the Hollywood film industry is the topic of a free lecture Monday by Dr. Hans-Bernhard Moeller, professor of German studies at the University of Texas in Austin. Titled "Central European Exiles and the American Cinema," his talk will begin at 6 p.m. in LC 500. After the lecture, the 1922 classic film "Nosferatu" will be shown. The lecture is part of a class on German films, Foreign Languages 450, but the public is invited.

Dr. Moeller has done extensive research in the emigration of literary and film artists from German-speaking countries to Hollywood. He will discuss Hollywood as a refuge for these exiles, their working conditions and possibilities in American cinema, the relationship of New German Cinema to the immigrant filmmakers, and screenplay collaboration and its effect as seen in works by Bertolt Brecht, Alfred Neumann, Heinrich Mann and others.

Cuban Movie Next Foreign Film

"The Last Supper," a Cuban film based on an actual historical incident, will be shown free of charge at 7:30 p.m., tomorrow in PS 10.

The story recreates a Holy Week during the late 18th century when a wealthy, guilt-ridden count stages a last supper, inviting 12 black slaves from his sugarcane plantation and casting himself as Christ. As an allegory on Christian liberalism, the movie is the sort of anti-religious satire so beloved of director Luis Bunuel.

Outing Scheduled For 'Sophisticated Ladies'

Staff, faculty and students are invited to participate in an Escape outing to see Duke Ellington's "Sophisticated Ladies" Saturday, April 17 at the Schubert Theatre in Los Angeles. The $20 cost covers tickets for the performance and transportation to and from the campus. The bus will stop at restaurant row in West Covina after the performance, so that participants can choose from a variety of dining places. Tickets are limited to 40.

Nicaragua And Nuclear Arms Subjects Of Films, Lecture

The Coalition for Peaceful Coexistence will sponsor a film on Nicaragua and a speaker on nuclear arms proliferation next week in the SUMP Room. "Sandino, Today and Forever," which looks at the social changes in Nicaragua since the overthrow of Somoza by the Sandanistas, will be shown at noon Tuesday. Dave Lumian, founder of the Alliance for Survival, will speak on nuclear arms at noon Wednesday. Two films, "War Without Winners" and "The Last Epidemic," will be shown after his talk.

The California State College, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published Fridays by the Public Affairs Office, AD 117, Ext. 7558. Items for publication should be received in writing by noon Tuesday.

Dr. Roger S. Fouts, world-renowned researcher in primate communication, will speak at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, April 22, in PS 10. Dr. Fouts is in charge of Project Washoe, in which chimpanzees are taught American sign language.

The chimps not only learn specific signs for objects, but are able to communicate by linking signs together into coherent phrases. They also can teach signs to each other. The purposes of the program are to study chimpanzee language acquisition, to help this threatened species survive and to apply information gained from the research toward treatment of noncommunicating children and communication problems in general.

Dr. Fouts' research with Washoe, the first chimpanzee to learn a human language, and the other chimps in the project has been the subject of articles in nationwide publications and has been spotlighted on several television networks.

Dr. Fouts' presentation will include slides of his work at Project Washoe, formerly located at the University of Oklahoma and now in residence at Central Washington University. Dr. Fouts is professor of psychology and researcher in comparative psycholinguistics at CWU.

Admission is $3 with advance reservations or $3.50 at the door. Reservations may be made by calling the Psychology Department, Ext. 7226. Proceeds will go to the Friends of Washoe Foundation, a nonprofit organization that helps support the project. Dr. Fouts' visit is sponsored by Psi Chi, Uni Phi, the Associated Students and the Psychology Department.

"Nightspore," a group consisting of Cal State, San Bernardino music students and graduates, will play original ethnic, jazz and rock music in a concert at 8:15 p.m., Friday, April 16, in the Recital Hall.

The musicians include Cal State graduate Joan Cochran, flute; and students Constantinos Tellalis, guitar and mandolin; John Browning, piano; Jerry Neese, bass; Richard Sanchez, alto and soprano saxophone; Ray Glider, percussion; and Frances Petrovic, violin. Accompanying electronic music is by Catherine LeBaigue, also a student here. Tellalis and Browning are the composers.

Admission is $2 general, $1 students and senior citizens. Proceeds will go toward scholarships for music students.

Transportation via van and car pooling is being coordinated for the 1982 Abilities Unlimited Expo by the Services to Students with Disabilities Office. The trip will be Friday, April 16, to the Los Angeles Convention Center. The exposition displays the latest products and services for persons with disabilities. It also provides a job fair, forums and seminars. Admission is free for this event, which also is scheduled April 15 and 17. Persons interested in attending or acquiring more information may call the Services to Students With Disabilities Office, Ext. 7662.
MARK YOUR CALENDARS
The next blood drive for this campus will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Tuesday, April 27, in the Health Center. Faculty, staff and students are asked to mark this date on their calendars. This campus established a blood reserve fund many years ago to assure a supply of blood available for members of the campus community and their dependents. The fund needs to be replenished every year to keep it active.
