Cinco de Mayo Fiesta Planned For Wednesday

Skits, dances of Mexico, Latin music and Mexican food are planned for the annual Cinco de Mayo celebration here Wednesday. The free activities are scheduled from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the Commons Patio. The event is sponsored by the MEChA Club and the Associated Students.

A troupe of dancers and actors in grades kindergarten through 12 from La Escuela de La Raza Unida in Blythe will perform dances from Mexico and two skits. A new feature will be having representatives from various businesses and agencies who will provide information on careers.

A combination plate of shredded beef, beans, rice, salad, chili and bread will be sold for $2.50 at the fiesta. Advance tickets for $2 will be sold today in front of the Library. Also included in the fiesta will be a piñata breaking and the annual cake cutting, with free cake for everyone. Raspados (snow cones), beverages and cascarones (confetti-filled, decorated egg shells) will be for sale.

Spring Enrollment Stays Above 4500

Official census date figures reveal the college has 4,585 students this quarter, the largest spring term figure in the history of the college.

This quarter enrollment is 77 students greater than spring 1981. The full-time equivalents for the two periods are 3,402.6 for 1982 and 3,202 for 1981.

Following the usual pattern, enrollment is down from the record 4,968 students who attended fall quarter.

'Cambodia Today, Vietnam Yesterday' Is Theme Of Conference On Monday

"Cambodia Today, Vietnam Yesterday" is the theme of a free conference to be sponsored by the Veterans Affairs Office from noon to 5 p.m., Monday, in the SUMP Room.

Student Glenn Lutz will present slides on Cambodia. An LVN, he served on a medical team to Cambodia sponsored by the Seventh Day Adventist World Service Organization. Richard Diez, a photojournalist with the Aerospace Audio-Visual Service at Norton Air Force Base, will give a slide presentation on "VietnamYesterday."

Thomas Wulbrecht, the team leader of the new Vet Center in Riverside, will talk about "Delayed Stress," and Raymond Sayre (Veterans Affairs Office) will give an "Agent Orange Update."
U.S. MILITARY STRENGTH

The strategic position of the United States in the world is the topic of a free lecture by Dr. Harold W. Rood, an expert on nuclear and conventional armament, at noon, Tuesday, in the SUMP Room.

Dr. Rood will discuss this country's preparedness for war and how it compares militarily with other world powers. A professor of political science at Claremont McKenna College and Claremont Graduate School, Dr. Rood specializes in international relations and constitutional development.

In his book Kingdoms of the Blind, he argues that western democracy may be repeating mistakes it made before World War II that, he thinks, left the United States unprepared for a war that could have been avoided. His essay, 'Distant Ramparts,' on U.S. strategy and the Vietnam conflict was awarded the Gold Medal by the United States Naval Institute.

GLASSER TO SPEAK ON REALITY THERAPY

Dr. William Glasser, a psychiatrist and lecturer in mental health and education, will speak about 'New Directions for Reality Therapy' during an all-day seminar Friday, May 14, at Loma Linda University. The seminar will begin at 8:30 a.m. and conclude at 4 p.m. in the Randall Visitor Center of Del Webb Memorial Library. The program is sponsored by Cal State's Psi Chi and Uni Phi clubs in conjunction with the Office of Continuing Education and the Associated Students.

Dr. Glasser has developed the concepts of reality therapy, schools without failure and positive addiction. During the seminar, he will present ideas from his book, Stations of the Mind. In this book, he maintains that individuals almost always control their responses to situations. During the seminar, he will demonstrate methods to help individuals choose positive reactions and behavior.

Seating is limited, so early registration is encouraged. Information can be obtained by calling 887-7797. The cost is $25 noncredit, plus an additional $15 for persons wishing continuing education credits in nursing, dentistry, psychology and toward marriage and family therapy licensing.

FLUTIST TO PERFORM IN CONCERT THURSDAY

Flutist Jayne Close, now a student at Cal State, Fullerton, will give a free noon concert Thursday in the Recital Hall. The public is invited.
A conference on "Special Education in Crisis" will be sponsored by the Office of Continuing Education, the Special Education Resource Network and the California Assn. for Neurologically Handicapped Children tomorrow in LC 500.

Educators and counselors from southern California will focus on the special needs, issues and services related to learning handicapped students. The keynote speaker will be Assemblywoman Marian Bergeson of Newport Beach, vice chair of the Education Committee in Sacramento. Speakers from this campus will be Drs. Ernest Garcia, Steven Wagner and Francesca Bero (Education).

The $26 per person fee includes lunch. The day will begin with registration at 7:45 a.m. in LC 500 and conclude at 4:45 p.m. The conference is designed for parents, resource specialists, teachers and administrators.

'SPECIAL EDUCATION IN CRISIS' CONFERENCE ON CAMPUS TOMORROW

'Survival in the Nuclear Age' is the topic of the 12th annual social sciences field day Thursday in LC 500. About 75 of the top social science students from area high schools will participate in this event, which is sponsored by the School of Social and Behavioral Sciences and the Inland Empire Council for the Social Studies.

The speakers will be Cal State faculty. They are Dr. Carol Goss (Political Science), Dr. Richard Ackley (Political Science), Dr. Richard Rowland (Geography), Christopher Niggle (Economics), Dr. David Decker (Sociology), Dr. Kent Schofield (History), Dr. Nikolai Khokhlov (Psychology), and Dr. James Pierson (Anthropology). Dr. Joseph Janczyk (Economics) is coordinating the program.

SOCIAL SCIENCES FIELD DAY FOR HIGH SCHOOLS THURSDAY

Rosemary Binney (EOP) was named distinguished alumnus at the third annual awards program of the Alumni Assn. Sunday in the Commons. Cheryl R. Brown, a 1974 graduate and the co-publisher of the Black Voice newspaper, was named alumnus of the year.

President and Mrs. John M. Pfau received honorary life memberships. Also receiving life memberships were Don and Wilma Goodcell, a San Bernardino couple who have been active supporters of the college for 20 years.

Doyle Stansel (Dean of Students Office) was recognized for his work and leadership. Stansel has been coordinator of the Alumni Association since its inception in 1968. Lawrence Daniels, who is completing his second term as the association president, presented a charter for the new Education Chapter of the Alumni Assn. to its president, Al Twine, and to Dr. Ernest Garcia (Education).

STAFF MEMBER NAMED DISTINGUISHED ALUMNUS

The campus community is reminded that reservations for An Evening Honoring the Graduates, to be sponsored by the Alumni Assn. and the Associated Students, should be made by today at the Associated Students Office, SU 32 or the Student Union desk. Tickets are $12.50 per person and $20 per couple. The event, to be Friday, May 7, will begin with dinner at 8 p.m. in the Upper Commons, to be followed by dancing in the Student Union.

EVENING HONORING GRADUATES RESERVATIONS DUE TODAY

RESERVATIONS DUE TODAY
Blood Drive Successful

Sixty-three percent more pints of blood were donated during the campuswide drive last Tuesday than during the fall blood drive. A total of 173 people offered to donate blood this time, resulting in 132 pints being added to the college's reserve account.

Morongo House will keep the plaque this time for being the dorm with the most residents donating. Tokay was the winner in a competition for being the dorm bringing in the most donors campuswide. Morongo took second in this competition.

Students Pamela Farmer and Julie Leahy won $20 each, and an intramural T-shirt went to student Linda Taylor. Lorraine Gorski (Computer Center) and Gene Andrusco (Business Administration) won $15 each.

The breakdown of contributors is 107 students, 18 staff, six faculty and one visitor. Student Todd Toruci played the Dracula encouraging the campus community to donate.

Uni Phi To Give Honorary Awards

The Uni Phi Club will give four honorary awards this quarter. Members of the Cal State community are invited to nominate people for these honors, which will be presented during the annual awards reception to be sponsored by the Activities Office in June.

Uni Phi has established four award categories. The Anita Hallberg Award will be given to a student who is an inspiration to others through determination, enthusiasm and successful educational achievement. The Barbara Sovereign Award will be presented to a student whose creativity and leadership qualities best reflect a positive image of the disabled person.

The Frank Lootens Award will go to a member of the staff, faculty or student body whose work behind the scenes has been a positive force for students with disabilities. The Fred Kellers Award will recognize a faculty member who has been respectfully sensitive and accommodating to the classroom needs of students with disabilities.

Nominations, along with specific reasons why the individuals deserve an award, should be sent to the Services to Students with Disabilities Office, LC 107, by Friday, May 14.

Graduate Work

For this special entry in The Bulletin, faculty are invited to submit information about students who will receive assistantships, fellowships or other honors in attending graduate schools next year.

Kristine Fromkin, a psychology major who will receive her M.A. in June, has been accepted to a Ph.D. program in clinical psychology at the University of Colorado at Boulder. She will have a teaching assistantship with tuition remission.
