BACH CONCERTOS HIGHLIGHT
CHAMBER ORCHESTRA CONCERT

Bach's "Double Violin Concerto" and "Brandenburg Concerto No. 4" will highlight a concert by the Cal State Chamber Orchestra at 3 p.m., Sunday, in the Recital Hall. Directed by Dr. Richard Saylor (Music), the orchestra consists of musicians from the community and Cal State. Tickets, available at the door, are $3 general, $1.50 students.

Also on the program are the "Christmas Concerto" by A. Corelli and two pieces by Stravinsky in honor of his centennial: "Apollo," a 20th century classic in string literature, and "Two Poems and Three Japanese Lyrics," with soprano Rita Manning (Philosophy).

Featured musicians will be Frances Petrovic, violin, a senior performing as part of her honors program; Robert Brosseau, violin, former member of the orchestra presently with the Cologne Radio Orchestra in Germany; Armen Turadian, concertmaster for the Chamber Orchestra; Rebecca Dobson, violin, a student of Turadian; Cal State graduate Michele Brosseau-Tacchia, cello; and students Nancy Boyles and Jayne Close, flute.

SPEAKERS SOUGHT FOR ME FESTIVAL IN APRIL

Faculty and staff are invited to participate as speakers during the Microtechnology for Everybody (ME) Festival April 22 through 24 on campus.

Persons interested in speaking or with suggestions for topics or speakers are asked to call Herb Nickles (Computer Center), the festival workshop coordinator, Ext. 7293. Workshops, to be held Friday and Saturday of the event, will fall under four general categories: Computers in the classroom, computers in business, computers for the handicapped and general interest.

More than 50 companies are expected to display the latest in microcomputer equipment and software. The festival, a major computer workshop and technical exhibit for the Inland Empire, is the brainchild of Frank Slaton (Computer Center).

TOMORROW IS LAST DAY OF CLASSES

The last day of classes for fall quarter is tomorrow. Finals will be given Monday through Thursday next week, with the exams for Saturday classes on Saturday, Dec. 11.

During finals, the Pfau Library will have the following schedule: 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 4; noon-8 p.m., Sunday, Dec. 5; 8 a.m.-11 p.m., Monday-Wednesday, Dec. 6-8; 8 a.m.-10 p.m., Thursday, Dec. 9. During quarter break, the Library will be open 8 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday-Friday and closed weekends from Dec. 10 to Jan. 5.

The Commons will serve the last meal of the fall quarter at dinner, Thursday, Dec. 9. It will resume operations with dinner on Sunday, Jan. 2.
WINTER EXTENSION

Free Bulletins of courses offered by the Office of Continuing Education this winter are available in PL 500 or from the Public Affairs Office, AD 117. About 80 classes are scheduled, including a variety of general interest topics and courses designed to improve job skills and meet requirements for degrees, credentials, certificates and professional relicensure.

COURSE IN MUSEUM STUDIES LAUNCHED NEXT QUARTER

A new museum studies track in the anthropology B.A. program was launched this fall, with Dr. Jonathan Kent as coordinator. "Museum Studies," the foundation course for the program, will be offered for the first time winter quarter.

The program is designed for people who wish to pursue a professional career in museums, for volunteers and for people who want to learn more about the history, purposes and organization of museums. While emphasizing a general, anthropological approach to museum studies, the program is applicable to museum work relating to historical archives, the arts and the physical and biological sciences. An internship, offered at several museums in southern California, will provide practical training in the techniques of museum work.

PAPERS ACCEPTED FOR CWHE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The annual conference of the California Women in Higher Education, March 18 through 20 in Sacramento, will feature juried papers on aspects of "The Politics of Change," the conference theme. Persons wishing to have their work considered should send an abstract by Dec. 15 or the complete paper by Jan. 15 to: Joan Steele, chair, CWHE Editorial Board, Research Office, California State College, Stanislaus, Turlock, CA 95380. Papers should be limited to 10 pages.

FEE WAIVER APPLICATIONS FOR WINTER DUE DEC. 10

Employee requests for enrollment in the CSU fee waiver program for winter quarter must be submitted by Friday, Dec. 10. Applications for participation in future quarters must reach the Personnel Office at least eight weeks prior to the beginning of the term. Information on the revised fee waiver policy and specific guidelines on enrollment procedures recently were distributed to employees. Additional information and assistance in completing the forms is available from Paul Aidoo (Personnel), Ext. 7205.
Althea Waites To Present Program On Women Composers

Althea Waites (Music) will give a free recital and lecture on music by women composers at noon today in the Recital Hall. She will be joined by Gwendolyn Lyle, soprano and professor of voice at UC, Riverside. The program will feature art songs by Margaret Bonds and Undine Smith Moore, former director of the Black Music Center at Virginia State College, and piano works by Clara Schumann, Chaminade and Nancy Van De Vate.

Cal State Associates Continue Fund Drive

Contributions for the annual scholarship fund and holiday greetings project conducted by the Cal State Associates should be received by Dec. 15 in order to allow time for preparation and mailing of cards. Donations may be sent to Dr. Donald Woods (Counseling and Testing) or Jennifer McMullen (Administration).

International Programs Accepting Applications

Applications for the CSU International Programs are being accepted. Programs ranging from international business to social sciences to biochemistry are offered in 15 countries. Students must be enrolled at a CSU campus the year they study abroad and will receive resident credit. They must have a GPA of 2.7 or higher, depending on the program. Some programs require completion of two years of college-level foreign language study. More information is available from Dr. Mireille Rydell (French), the program coordinator at this college, Ext. 7445.

High School-College Program Accepting Winter Applications

The High School-College Program is accepting applications for winter quarter. Under the program high school juniors and seniors may enroll in classes at Cal State to earn college or high school credit. Information is available from Roberta Stathis-Ochoa (Academic Planning), Ext. 7521. Dec. 27 is the deadline for applications.

New Student Services Plans Winter Information Fair

Faculty and staff are asked to encourage new students to register for the Winter Information Fair to be held from 7 to 9 p.m., Tuesday, Dec. 28, in the Student Union. The orientation, sponsored by New Student Services, is designed to answer many of the questions new students ask about registration, academic regulations, student services and other areas. Registration is available at the Activities Office, Ext. 7407, SS 122.

German Christmas Party Planned For Dec. 18

The German Club invites the campus community to a traditional German Christmas party at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 18, at the home of Miranda Munson (German). This is the third year the club has sponsored the event, which features songs, stories, poems and Christmas skits. Information is available by calling the Foreign Languages Department, Ext. 7445.
YOUTH SOCCER PLAYOFFS

The Colton Youth Soccer Club will host the District Five Commissioners Cup Dec. 11 and 12 at Cal State, San Bernardino. Thirty-three teams, with a total of about 600 players ranging from age four to 15, will compete. John Cervantes (Grounds Maintenance) is arranging the event.
