Drs. John S. Chaney, K. Michael Clarke, Rauf A. Khan and Jack McDonnell will chair the departments of the School of Business and Public Administration when the reorganization and name change of the School of Administration become effective in September. All appointments are academic year positions.

Dr. Chaney, professor of administration, has been appointed to a three-year term as chair of the new Department of Management.

Dr. K. Michael Clarke, associate professor of administration, will continue as chair of the Department of Public Administration through the 1983-84 school year.

Dr. McDonnell, professor of administration and chair of the present Department of Business Administration, will complete his term by chairing the new Department of Marketing and Management Science for two years.

The Department of Business Administration is being split into three departments to better serve growing enrollment, specializations developing within the business field and community projects, according to Dr. Hal Hoverland, school dean. The Department of Public Administration remains unchanged.

SEN. INOUYE TO SPEAK ON NURSING LEGISLATION
