1984 Holiday Schedule Announced

The holiday calendar for 1984 will include the observance of a new federal and state holiday, Martin Luther King's birthday, Jan. 15, which will be taken Jan. 16. Also, the use of floating holidays has been discontinued. Holidays not taken on the day they occur will be rescheduled to a specific date because of complexities arising from the contracts negotiated with the various bargaining units. The schedule includes:

Holiday Recess Includes Library Recarpeting

The Library will be intermittently closed during the Dec. 12 through Jan. 6 recess for recarpeting of the first floor. The closure will affect the third, fourth and fifth floors of the Library.

If there is any planned use of the Library during this time, the staff recommends calling the reference desk, Ext. 7335, or the circulation desk, Ext. 7334, to find out if the Library is open.

Facilities remaining open in the Pfau Library are the School of Education and Continuing Education on the fifth floor, the School of Humanities on the second floor and the offices in the basement. The new carpet installed last August will be replaced by the vendor because it did not match.

New Library hours for finals week will be 8 a.m.–11 p.m. Monday, Dec. 5 through Wednesday, Dec. 7; 8 a.m.–10 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 8 and 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday, Dec. 9. From Dec. 10 through Jan. 8, hours will be 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday and closed weekends.

The Physical Education Building will be closed weekends throughout December. The Commons will close after dinner Dec. 8 and reopen for dinner Jan. 3. Serrano Village houses will be closed from noon, Dec. 9 through 1 p.m., Jan. 3. Food service in the Student Union will be suspended from Dec. 9 through Jan. 3.
TRUSTEES APPOINT NEW PRESIDENT AT CSUS

Actions taken by the CSU Board of Trustees Nov. 18-19 include appointment of a new president at Cal State, Sacramento and adoption of a management personnel plan. Board actions include:

* Appointment of Dr. Donald R. Gerth, president of CSU, Dominguez Hills, as president of CSU, Sacramento, effective in 1984. He succeeds Dr. Lloyd Johns, who resigned July 1. Dr. Austin J. Gerber, dean of CSUS' School of Business and Public Administration, served as acting president.

* Adopted a management personnel plan for all employees designated as "management" or "supervisory" under the Higher Education Employer-Employee Relations Act, effective Jan. 1.

* Approved salary increases and allowances for 17 presidents and the chancellor and salary increases for four vice chancellors, effective Jan. 1.

* Approved policies and procedures for review of the chancellor.

MATH, ENGLISH EXAMS TO BE GIVEN DEC. 10

A special administration of the entry-level mathematics exam and the English placement test will be given at 8:30 a.m., Saturday, Dec. 10 in B1 101. Students who are held to these tests may sign up for them in the Counseling Center, PS 227, by noon Friday, Dec. 9. The English test is given free; there is a $7 fee for the math test. All first-time freshmen enrolling at the college after Sept. 1, 1983 and all transfer or returning students held to the 1983-84 Bulletin must pass the math exam before they can enroll in general education math courses.

The math exam is a system-wide requirement and this campus has little flexibility in granting waivers. Questions about who will be held to the requirements may be referred to the Admissions Office, Ext. 7308.

MEChA DISTRIBUTES FOOD BASKETS, HOLDS TOY DRIVE

MEChA distributed 14 Thanksgiving meal baskets to families in San Bernardino. The baskets were comprised of canned foods from an on-campus food drive and augmented with turkeys purchased with funds from their bowl-a-thon. Baskets were distributed in cooperation with the Home of the Neighborly Service, Our Lady of Guadalupe Church and Victory Outreach.

MEChA will have toy drop boxes Dec. 5-16 in the Student Union and the Student Services Atrium. New or used toys will be accepted and will be taken to two orphanages in Tijuana the week before Christmas.
United Way Campaign Tops Last Year

The total dollar contribution of $11,904 represents a 16 percent increase in this year's Arrowhead United Way campaign. For the campus, 224 individuals contributed to this year's campaign which represents 39 percent of the college community, an increase of 32 percent more than last year. Executive Dean Michael Anderson, campus coordinator, said all volunteers and participants are to be congratulated on a very successful campaign effort.

Travel Reimbursement Rates Adjusted

Travel reimbursement rates, applicable to all personnel, have been adjusted by the Chancellor's Office. The new rates are effective immediately. The permitted allowance for lodging statewide is now $36 and up to $45 with receipts in designated high cost areas. Breakfast allowance is $4, lunch $7.25, and dinner $14. The incidental allowance permitted is $3.75.

To be eligible for the higher lodging allowance, employees must be required to travel to downtown areas of San Francisco, San Diego or Los Angeles. Employees must furnish a commercial lodging receipt for the day(s) of travel which bears one of the following zip codes: Los Angeles: 90012, 90013, 90014, 90015, 90017, 90021, 90045, 90071, 90230 or 90250.
San Francisco: 94010, 94102, 94103, 94104, 94105, 94108, 94109, 94111, 94115, 94128 or 94133; San Diego: 92101, 92103, 92106, 92108, 92110, 92138; and Sacramento: 95814.

Book Sale Nets $673

The Pfau Library's sale of duplicate and discarded books and periodicals Nov. 22 netted $673.60. The money will be used for the purchase of new books, said John Tibbals, head of patron services for the library. The receipts are less than the initial sale in the spring because of a smaller number of available books.

Memorial Show in Gallery II

A memorial exhibit of work by the late Roger Blakely Broadfoot continues in Gallery II in the Visual Arts Building until Dec. 12. The exhibit features painting, sculpture, silkscreening and pen and ink drawings. A fund has been established in the college Foundation for a foreign language scholarship in his name. Information may be obtained through Dean Michael Anderson's office at Ext. 7413.

Student Art Sale To Be Held Dec. 5

The annual Student Art Sale sponsored by the Art Club will be held from 11 a.m. to dusk on the south side of the Pfau Library Monday. Items ranging from $5 to $100 will include ceramics and hand-blown glass tree ornaments. The sale also was held yesterday.

Library Receives Judaism Books

The Pfau Library has received a $150 grant from the Jewish Chautauqua Society for books on the topic of Judaism. The books, which will be received soon, include readings on understanding American Judaism, Rosh Hashana, Passover and a history of Jewish customs and ceremonies.
The Intramural Sports Office is providing telephone calls from Santa Claus to the children of the college community. Forms are available at the Student Union and the Physical Education Department Office for the calls, which are free of charge. Forms must be received by the department by Dec. 9.

The calls will be made to the child during the early evening hours from Dec. 12 to Dec. 16. Time and dates may be specified by the parent. Calls should be limited to San Bernardino, Riverside, Redlands, Crestline and Lake Arrowhead areas.

Members of the college community wishing to extend holiday greetings to each other while providing scholarships for students here should make their contributions to the Cal State Associates by Friday, Dec. 9.

The card prepared by the Cal State Associates lists all donors to the scholarship fund and is mailed to each participant. Donations may be sent to: Beverly Dyer (Foundation) or Lorraine El-Ahraf, 140 Pinehurst Ct., San Bernardino 92407. Checks should be made payable to Cal State Associates. Contributions, which are tax deductible, are deposited in the college Foundation scholarship account.

Students who voted Nov. 22-23 favored changing the name of the student newspaper from The PawPrint to the Cal State Chronicle. Of the 350 ballots cast, The Chronicle garnered 166; the PawPrint received 139; there were 29 write-in ballots suggesting other names and 16 ballots were declared invalid. The Publications Board now has the election results under consideration.

Upward Bound student Lynette Morris was presented at the Swans' 23rd annual Debutante Ball at the San Bernardino Convention Center Nov. 12. Carolyn Freeman, an Upward Bound student last year, was co-winner of the Debutante of the Year award.

Due to the holiday break, the Bulletin will be published on an abbreviated schedule in December. There will be two more editions of the Bulletin this month, on Dec. 16 and Dec. 30.

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. Margaret Atwell, Dr. Irvin Howard and Dr. Adria Klein (Education) presented a session, "Using Text to Produce Text: Developing Schema Strategies through Reader's Theatre and Multi-ethnic Literature," at the 73rd annual convention of the National Council of Teachers of English in Denver Nov. 19.

Michael Burgess (Library) sold a full-length critical study of American writer John Norman to Frederick Ungar Publishing Co. of New York as part of its extensive series of monographs on contemporary authors. It will be published in 1984.

Michael Cappelli (Management) co-authored an article, "General Practice: Tax Aspects of Small Corporate Liquidations," which was published in the November issue of the Riverside County Bar Journal.

Milton Clark (English) read a paper, "Community and Autonomy in the Novels of Toni Morrison," at the Mid-Hudson Modern Language Assn. meeting in New York Nov. 28 and 29.

Dr. Wallace T. Cleaves (Psychology) spoke on "Neuropsychological Self-regulation Strategies with Brain Damaged Children and Young Adults" to the California Biofeedback Society in Santa Barbara Nov. 12.

Dr. Amer El-Ahraf (Health Science and Human Ecology) arranged for the papyrus art exhibit on display in the Art Gallery through tomorrow while on sabbatical leave at the University of Zagazig, Egypt.

Dr. Stuart Ellins (Psychology) presented a colloquium "Changing the Behavior of the Urban Coyote" to Sigma Xi, the Scientific Research Society, at the Claremont Colleges Nov. 15.

Dr. Brij Khare (Political Science) hosted the Delegation Chair Conference/Southern Region of the Model United Nations of the Far West on campus Nov. 17. Delegate chairs from Arizona and the Secretariat from Oregon State University attended the meeting.

Dr. Nathan Kravetz (Education) has a first-page article "Math—For Girls Only! A GATE Experience" in the fall 1983 issue of the California Assn. for the Gifted Communicator.

Lance Masters (Marketing and Management Science) reviewed the book Strategic Management by Arthur Sharplin for Prentice-Hall.

Dr. Jennifer Randisi (English) chaired a session and read a paper, "The River as a Metaphor in American Poetry," at the Mid-Hudson Modern Language Assn. meeting in New York Nov. 28 and 29.

Dr. David Shichor (Criminal Justice) presented two papers "On Corporate Deviance and Corporate Victimization: Some Elaborations" and "The Victim's Role in the Penal Process: Recent Developments in California" at the annual meeting of the American Society of Criminology in Denver Nov. 9-13.

Dr. Edward Teyber (Psychology) has a book, Helping Your Children With Divorce, accepted for publication in June by Pocket Books, the paperback division of Simon and Schuster.

IN SYMPATHY

The college community extends its sympathy to Dr. Hal Hoverland (Business and Public Administration) on the death of his father, Arthur R. Hoverland, 82, on Nov. 21 in Ohio.
Dr. James Crum (School of Natural Sciences) spoke to the Retired Officers Club about "What You Always Wanted to Know About Wine but Were Afraid to Ask" at the Norton Air Force Base Officers Club Nov. 18.

President Anthony H. Evans gave the keynote address at the San Bernardino Mayor's Prayer Breakfast yesterday. About 850 persons attended the annual event, held in the San Bernardino Convention Center.

Dr. Hal Hoverland (Business and Public Administration) spoke to the San Bernardino chapter of the American Business Women's Assn. on "Creativity and Problem Solving" Nov. 16.

Dr. Brij Khare (Political Science) spoke on "World Hunger and Our Responsibility" at Grace United Methodist Church in Riverside Nov. 20. This is his fourth presentation on this topic in the past three months.

Dr. Rauf Khan (Accounting and Finance) spoke on "Financial Solvency Versus Productivity" at a meeting of the National Assn. of Bank Women at the San Bernardino Hilton Hotel Nov. 22.

James H. Urata (Administrative Services) will serve next year as president of the San Bernardino Metropolitan YMCA. He was president-elect this year. Dr. Peter Wilson (Dean of Students) was elected to a three-year term on the YMCA board.

Mayo Toruno (Economics) completed the requirements for his Ph.D. from UC Riverside this month. His dissertation, "The Evolution of the Concept of a General Competitive Equilibrium," deals with the idea that all markets in a competitive economic system can adjust simultaneously so that supply equals demand in each and every market.

A program of Predoctoral Merit Fellowships for students aiming toward a Ph.D. at the University of Southern California is announced by the Committee on Scholarships, Prizes and Awards at USC. Merit Fellowships include $10,000 plus full tuition remission and mandatory fees. Outstanding seniors or recent graduates are eligible to apply. The awards are for one year, renewable up to a maximum of three years. More information may be obtained from Graduate Programs Office, Ext. 7755.

It was incorrectly reported that Veterans Day holiday not used on Nov. 11 was to be used the day after Thanksgiving, Nov. 25. Columbus Day, Oct. 10, was actually observed Nov. 25.

San Jose State University--Dean of the School of Social Sciences, apply by Feb. 1.
