THOUSANDS EXPECTED
FOR OPEN HOUSE SATURDAY

A wide range of festivities will take place tomorrow at the Open House, an event of fun and exploration for the campus family and the community at large. Activities in the ME Festival (Microtechnology for Everybody) begin at 10 a.m. today with the breaking of a robot pinata in the big top tent near the Gym.

Saturday's Open House attractions have been planned for the enjoyment of all ages. There will be a children's art fair, puppet show and strolling clowns. Both children and adults may ride a camel for $1 or see a simulated underwater ballet by a 22-foot microcomputer-controlled whale and two dancers. Whale show tickets are $3 each.

Beginning at 11 a.m. with the fly-over and landing of an Army Huey Helicopter, the Open House will also feature demonstrations by the art department faculty, a display of antique autos, model gliders with up to 14-foot wingspans and exhibits from many public safety agencies. In addition to the helicopter, the Army ROTC program is sponsoring rappelling demonstrations on the side of the Library and a precision rifle drill team from Riverside Polytechnic High School.

On the center stage will be breakdancing and a concert by the college's jazz combo at 2 p.m. Other entertainment includes a folk singer in the Student Union Lounge.

A raku luncheon of Chinese food will be sponsored by the Art Club in the Visual Arts Building and PFM will serve barbecue beef sandwiches and chicken for lunch in the Student Union patio from noon to 2 p.m.

Tickets still are available, $5 each, for many of the high-tech workshops Friday and Saturday. Topics include accessing data bases, property management by computer, the Apple Ile in the classroom, business writing with WordStar and selecting educational software.

A full program of the day's activities will be distributed tomorrow at the information booth, staffed by the Admissions, Records and Outreach Office. Copies are available today at the Public Affairs Office.

Activities for college alumni include a continental breakfast Saturday at 11 a.m. in the Lower Commons and a cocktail reception that evening at the San Bernardino Hilton. The Alumni Awards Brunch is slated for 11 a.m. Sunday. Five outstanding graduates will be honored at the brunch.

ENROLLMENT TOPS LAST SPRING

The college continues to top previous records with 375 more students enrolled this spring than for the same quarter last year. The census date figure is 5,145 this spring, compared to 4,770 last year. FTE is 3,822.2, for a 256 increase over last spring.
Faculty planning to march in the commencement ceremony Saturday, June 16 may order regalia from the Bookstore beginning Monday. The deadline for faculty orders is Friday, May 11. Rental fees are:

- Master: cap, gown, hood, tassel $23.35
- Master: hood or gown $11.70
- Doctoral: cap, gown, hood, tassel $26.70
- Doctoral: hood or gown $13.35

An insider's look at the problems of a museum curator will be given at noon Monday. The illustrated presentation by Ms. Janice Queener-Shaw, formerly curator of collections at the Edward-Dean Museum of Decorative Arts in Cherry Valley, is in VA 110.

Her talk, "The Edward-Dean Collection--A Study in Curatorial Practice," relates to the display in the Art Gallery. She will discuss various problems that a curator faces when dealing with objects such as those in the exhibition, said Dr. Julius Kaplan, chair of the Art Department.

The 50 pieces of furniture, ceramics and paintings from the Edward-Dean Museum are on display in the Gallery through May 15.

A musical sign language revue, "Finger Talk," will be performed at 7:30 p.m., Friday, May 4, in the Recital Hall. Access Theater of Santa Barbara will present the program, which consists of a series of music and dance numbers. They will be shadow interpretative—understandable to both the hearing and the hearing impaired, said JoAnn Hartzog (Services to Students with Disabilities), who is arranging the event.

Musical numbers include "Bear in There" and "Jimmy Jet" by Shel Silverstein; "Gorilla" by James Taylor, "Bein' Green" by Jim Henson and "Secret Gardens" by Judy Collins.

Tickets, sold at the door, are $3 for adults and $2 for children age 11 and under.

Classic piano pieces from such composers as Haydn, Chopin and Debussy will be featured in a concert by Gianna Pirelli at noon Thursday in the Recital Hall. There is no admission charge.

Ms. Pirelli, who was featured in a guest concert here earlier in this month, is from the music faculty at San Bernardino Valley College. She has played throughout the United States and Europe and has given a series of piano recitals on PBS radio and TV.
Poet Louis Simpson To Give Reading May 1

Pulitzer prize-winning poet Louis Simpson will give a poetry reading at 8 p.m., Tuesday in the Recital Hall.

Dr. Simpson, now a professor of English and comparative literature at the State University of New York at Stony Brook, has authored nine books of poetry and has received acclaim for his literary reviews.

His "At the End of the Open Road" garnered the Pulitzer Prize in 1964. Other honors and awards received include the Prix de Rome, Guggenheim Foundation fellowships and the Medal of Excellence given by Columbia University.

The visit is arranged by Dr. Lawrence Smith (English).

Teacher Job Search Workshops Planned

Two workshops will be given next week for those interested in entering the teaching job market. A resume-writing workshop will be held from 3 to 5 p.m., Wednesday in SS 171. The basics of resumes will be discussed as well as individual differences and questions.

An interviewing workshop will be from 3 to 5 p.m., Thursday in PS 227. There will be a short film and an opportunity to do an interview on video tape.

Mixed Discipline Series Scheduled During May

A series of faculty presentations featuring interdisciplinary discussions has been planned for Thursdays at noon during May. All meetings of the "Science, Culture and Society Forum" will be in PL 241. They are:

May 3--Dr. Irving Buchen (Humanities) on "The Future of 1984" with discussant Dr. Charles Kellers (Physics).

May 10--Dr. Frank Farrell (Philosophy) on "Minds and Machines" with discussant Dr. James D. Crum (Natural Sciences).

May 17--Dr. Richard Ackley (Political Science) on "The Militarization of Outer Space" with discussant Dr. Dalton Harrington (Biology).

Chris Phelps Elected A.S. President

Chris Phelps, a junior physics major, has been elected president of the Associated Students for 1984-85. Sheryl Hammer, a junior criminal justice/English major, will be vice president and Elizabeth Eastes, sophomore business major, is treasurer.

Representing the schools on the A.S. Board of Directors will be: Remus Haste, junior, accounting, School of Business and Public Administration; Richard Ybanez, art, School of Humanities; Lynette Sauerheber, junior, physics, School of Natural Sciences; David Swedlove, freshman, sociology, School of Education; and Shelly Bickel, freshman, pre-law, School of Social and Behavioral Sciences.

There were no candidates for the seats representing dual majors and undeclared majors. These representatives will be appointed after June 1, when elected officers take office.
