Zagazig Professors Here Next Week

Two senior administrators from Zagazig University in Egypt will be on campus next week to establish relations with colleagues in similar fields.

The visitors are Dr. Abd El-Tawab Bahgat, vice president and formerly dean of the School of Veterinary Medicine; and Dr. Salah AbdHalim, dean of the School of Education.

All members of the campus community are invited to a reception for the guests from 10 to 11 a.m., Thursday, Jan. 24 in the President’s Conference Room, AD 102, said Dr. Amer El-Ahraf, associate vice president for academic resources, who is arranging the schedule and is hosting his former professor, Dr. Bahgat.

The visitors will meet with President Evans, Vice President McAfee and faculty from the Schools of Natural Science and Education to discuss faculty exchange programs and other cooperative ventures. The two institutions executed a memorandum of understanding in March 1984 which calls for cooperative programs, exchange of faculty and students, development of joint research projects and consultation on research equipment and teaching programs.

The agreement gives Cal State faculty the opportunity to work with doctoral students from Zagazig University in joint research projects. The Egyptian students will take their course work at Zagazig University and conduct their research with Cal State faculty. One Ph.D. candidate, Dr. Mohamed Aref, a veterinarian, currently is spending two years here working with Dr. El-Ahraf and a colleague at CSU, Fullerton.

In addition to the activities on campus, the visiting scholars will have meetings at the Chancellor’s Office Tuesday, with an opportunity to meet Chancellor Reynolds.

Participants Needed For Speakers Bureau

The Speakers Bureau, which became a function of the Public Affairs Office last fall, is actively seeking additional faculty and staff who are willing to represent the university in the community.

The Speakers Bureau provides programs for schools, civic organizations, clubs, churches and other nonprofit agencies. All speeches arranged through the bureau are provided without charge to the requesting organization.

Faculty and staff who are willing to participate, and have not received the forms sent from the Public Affairs Office this week, are requested to call the office, Ext. 7558, within the next week. A brochure listing the speakers and topics will be published soon and distributed to interested organizations.

Enrollment Peaks At 5766

Winter quarter enrollment peaked at 5766 students on the last day to add classes, an 8.7 percent increase over the same time a year earlier. The figure will decrease somewhat as students may drop classes until census date, Monday, Jan. 28.
Free Financial Aid Workshops Are Set

Anxieties caused by filling in applications for financial aid to attend college may be alleviated by three free workshops Jan. 22, 23 and 30.

As a community service, the Financial Aid Office will show prospective students and their parents how to complete the forms. The workshops will begin at 7 p.m., Jan. 22 in the Commons; at 2 p.m., Jan. 23 in the Student Union; and at 7 p.m., Jan. 30 in the Commons.

The applications forms, used by public and private colleges and universities throughout California, are now available for the 1985-86 school year. The deadline for filing for Cal Grants is Feb. 11. The filing date for remaining types of financial aid is March 1.

Beta Center Hosts Symposium

Dr. Ernest Garcia (Education) will moderate a symposium on bilingual education, "Historical Perspectives and Future Implications," Tuesday, Jan. 29.

Sponsored by the BETA Center (Bilingual Education Training For Advancement), the symposium will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Recital Hall.

Speakers will include Dr. Leonard Baca, University of Colorado, Boulder; Dr. Ernest Bernal (Education); Dr. Alba Ortiz, University of Texas, Austin; Dr. Ray Padilla, University of Arizona, Tempe; Dr. Albar Pena, University of Texas, San Antonio; Dr. Gloria Zamora, Intercultural Developmental Research Association (IDRA).

Further information can be obtained by calling the BETA Center, 880-7931.

Bike-A-Thon Benefit Set For Jan. 26

Students and faculty will pedal their way around campus Saturday, Jan. 26 as a benefit for the fledgling Pep Club, announced Ellen Kowalski (Physical Education and Recreation), the club advisor.

Participants and sponsors are sought for the event, which will begin at noon and conclude at 1:15 p.m. A half-mile lap will be laid out on campus. The goal will be to ride as many laps as possible in the time span, she said, with sponsors paying per lap ridden.

Accepting the challenge to participate have been Vice President Ward McAfee, Dean of Students Peter Wilson, and Dr. Chris Grenfell and Miss Kowalski, from the PE Department. Students who will be riding are from the Pep Club, MEChA and the PE Majors and Minors Club.

Miss Kowalski asks that anyone willing to sponsor a rider contact her at the PE Department, Ext. 7732 or 7561.
Accounting Department
Ranks In Top Ten

Cal State is included in the top 10 colleges and universities having the largest percentage of students passing the May, 1984 Certified Public Accountant exam on the first try.

Finishing first in the state and tenth nationwide, 46.2 percent of Cal State students finished on the first try. Northern Illinois topped the list with 62.4 percent. The national average is 18.8 percent.

The report is based on the results for colleges and universities with 10 or more candidates taking the exam. Approximately 65,000 students nationwide take the exam each year.

Sorority To Sponsor
Second Annual Conference

"Black Gang Violence," "The Two-Career Couple," and "Feminization of Poverty" are a few of the topics to be explored at the second annual Black Family Conference, Saturday, Jan. 26.

Alpha Kappa Alpha will sponsor the one-day conference titled "The Black Family: Foundations for a Stronger Unit." The keynote speaker, Dr. Claudia Hampton, is a member and past chair of the CSU Board of Trustees. The Rev. Philip Nelson, pastor of Loveland Church in Fontana, will speak on "The Black Family and the Church." Dr. Mildred Henry (Education) will discuss "Family Interaction and Communication." Cita Moore Jones and Janice White (Financial Aid) will speak on "Financial Assistance for College."

Registration fee, which includes a luncheon, is $10 for general admission and $5 for students and senior citizens. The conference will be held in the Student Union from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Denise Benton (Upward Bound) is the conference coordinator.

New Editor
Heads Chronicle

Bradley Pivar, a junior marketing major, has been appointed by the Media Commission to serve as editor-in-chief of the student newspaper, The Chronicle.

Previously a production editor on the paper, Pivar succeeds Diane M. Lang who left the paper staff at the end of the fall quarter. A San Bernardino resident, Pivar plans to seek a career in magazine production.

Mathematics Seminar
Slated Jan. 24

Faculty, staff and students are invited to attend a mathematics seminar, "Chaos and Stability in Populations," Thursday, Jan. 24 in BI 129.

Dr. Vernon Howe, chairman of the department of mathematics, Loma Linda University, will speak on various applications in mathematics. A member of the Mathematical Association of Americas Lecture Program, Dr. Howe specializes in mathematical computer modeling.

The free seminar, hosted by the Mathematics Department, will be held at noon.
Minority Task Force Seeks Campus Input

Vice President Ward McAfee, chair of the task force, has issued a plea for input from anyone in the campus community who can assist the individual members of the group with their assignments. The information is sought now since reports are due early in February.

The specific direction of the task force is the development of plans which can be submitted to the Chancellor's Office for funding under the program change proposal which appears slated for approval in the 1985-86 budget. Even if funding is not received, the task force has caused the campus community to rethink the problem and to identify areas for attention, Dr. McAfee said.

The specific assignments of the task force members, on which they seek input, are:

Dr. Mildred Henry (Education), outreach programs to reach Hispanic/Black students early; Dr. Susan Meisenhelder (English), programs to assist teachers of writing and math in high schools with 25 percent or greater minority enrollment and enrichment of Cal State's writing and math courses for these students; Dr. Roberta Stathis-Ochoa (Academic Programs), resources needed to attract more minority high school seniors to Cal State classes;

Dr. Ernest Bernal (Education), remediation courses and study skills activities needed by minority freshmen and transfer students; Dr. Ernest Garcia (Education), problems of community college advisement for minority transfer students and use of one-time transition grants of $300 each to increase the number of Black/Hispanic community college transfers;

Jean Peacock (Learning Center, SAIL), strengthening of learning center and academic advisement to retain these students; Dr. McAfee, increase in number and percentage of Hispanic/Black faculty; Ed Schneiderhan (Career Planning and Placement Center), internships and cooperative education placements for minority students which would give meaningful exploration of careers; and Dr. Peter Wilson (Dean of Students), increase in number and percentage of Hispanic/Black freshmen.

Black and Hispanic students are the large population groups which have been identified by the Chancellor's Office as being represented in higher education far below the numbers in the general population.

The governor's budget for the CSU contains a $7.6 million PCP for improvement in minority underrepresentation. The Chancellor's Office is expected to award the funds to campuses which have developed programs to improve the situation.

Tennis Begins NEXT Wednesday

Intercollegiate tennis debuts at Cal State next week, with both the men's and women's teams facing their first opponents, Whittier College, at 2 p.m. on the home court. The next opportunity to see the tennis Coyotes will be 2 p.m., Friday, Jan. 25 when the women host the University of Redlands and the men take on visiting Azusa Pacific.

Tennis Coach Michael Muscare began practice last week with optimism about his prospective players and with a highly competitive schedule. The men will face the national NCAA tennis champs, Redlands, and both the men and women play top-rated Division I and II schools in addition to strong competition from Division III opponents.

Potential for the Coyotes teams includes several all-league players, a former Division II competitor, a community college doubles champion and an experienced club player.

There is no charge for watching the tennis meets and spectators are invited. Schedules for the tennis season are at the printers and will be available next week in the Intercollegiate Athletics Department and the Public Affairs Office.
