Reception to Honor Commencement Speaker

All faculty and staff who are participating in commencement are invited to attend a reception honoring the commencement speaker, Dr. William Pickens, from 4 to 5 p.m., Saturday, June 20 in the Sycamore Room of the Lower Commons. Individuals planning to attend are requested to respond to the University Relations Office (Ext. 7413) by June 15.

Dr. Pickens is the executive director of the California Postsecondary Education Commission. Commencement exercises for a record class of nearly 1600 graduates will begin at 5:30 p.m. on the lawn between the Library and the Physical Education complex.
Dr. Savage to Retire From Health Center

After nine years of service as a physician in the Student Health Center, including four years as director, Dr. James Savage will retire in July with mixed emotions. "I like the young people and the work so much," he said. "It's been a very enjoyable experience after being in active private practice."

Dr. Savage joined the Health Center staff in October 1978, after completing 36 years as a general surgeon, first as a flight surgeon in the Air Force and then as a founding member of the San Bernardino Medical Group. He had joined the Air Force in 1942, after completing his surgical residency, and spent most of his four-year stint in England. After the war, he returned to San Bernardino and joined his father and brother, both medical doctors, in private practice.

Since Dr. Savage joined the Health Center, for three months half time and then full time, the campus has grown from 3000 students to nearly 7500. It's no longer possible to take off for vacations, without feeling guilty about leaving all the work for the other physician, he said. In his retirement, he and his wife, Barbara, will have more time to do things together and to travel around the United States.

Although his retirement officially begins July 1, Dr. Savage will be on duty part-time during July. The Health Center closes in August and the new director will take charge in September.

Planned Giving Seminar Open to Faculty, Staff

Ways for maximizing the benefits of charitable giving will be discussed in a seminar on planned giving sponsored by the Office of University Relations Monday, June 8. Dr. Janice Loutzenhiser, an attorney and associate professor of management, will explain how donors can stretch their philanthropical dollars and reap personal benefits through creative planning. The title of the seminar, open to all who are interested, is "Giving a Lot for Less."

The program begins with light refreshments at 4:30 p.m., followed by the presentation from 5 to 6:30 p.m. Both are in the Sycamore Room of the Lower Commons. Reservations are requested immediately with University Relations, Ext. 7413.

Civic Education Project Receives National Award

The Civic Education Enhancement Project, developed and directed by Dr. Gordon Stanton (Education), was presented a Bicentennial Leadership Award "for exemplary contributions to the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution and the Bill of Rights." Dr. Stanton accepted the award at a conference sponsored by the Council for the Advancement of Citizenship May 14-15 in Washington, D.C.

Dr. Stanton's program, funded by the CSU, assists university faculty on the 19 CSU campuses to prepare future elementary and secondary teachers to be more effective in teaching about civic education.

That's Not All, Folks

Because of the flurry of end-of-the-year awards and activities, many of the items submitted for this week's Bulletin could not be accommodated in this issue. The next Bulletin will be distributed Friday, June 19. Any items especially of interest to faculty, who depart shortly for the summer, should be submitted to the Publications Office by Monday, June 15 a day earlier than normal.

The California State University, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published by the Publications Office, AD 117, on alternate Fridays. Items for publication should be submitted in writing.

39 Faculty Receive MPPP Awards

Meritorious performance and professional promise awards of $2500 are being presented to 39 faculty members in recognition of their excellence in areas such as classroom teaching, curricular development, instructional innovation and special projects.

Selection of the honorees begins in the schools, with each school given a proportionate number of awards based on its full-time equivalent faculty. Applications for the awards must show meritorious performance and professional promise in one or more of three areas and satisfactory performance in the remaining two areas. The broad areas of evaluation are teaching or job performance, professional growth and university or community service.

The 1987 recipients of the MPPP awards are:

School of Business and Public Administration:

Dr. Naomi Caiden (Public Administration)
Dr. J. S. Johar (Marketing, Management Science and Information Management)
Dr. Michael Clarke (Public Administration)
Dr. Arthur Saltzman (Marketing, Management Science and Information Management)

School of Education:

Dr. Margaret Atwell (Graduate Programs)
Dr. Louise Burton (Graduate Programs)
Dr. Keith Dolan (Graduate Programs)
Clark Molstad (Management)
Dr. Nabil Razzouk (Marketing, Management Science and Information Management)

Part of Lunch Room Area To be Conference Rooms

Approximately one-third of the atrium in the Student Services Building is being converted into two conference rooms because of space shortages on campus, reports Leonard Farwell, vice president for administration and finance.

The atrium, site of food and drink machines, is used by faculty, staff and students for breaks and as a lunch room. William Shum (Facilities Planning) said he is looking for alternative sites for staff to take breaks and eat lunch.

Campus crews already are at work converting the end of the atrium farthest from the machines into two conference rooms by installing two dry walls. The existing glass walls will be covered with drapes, Shum said. He expects the project to be completed within three weeks.

Two existing conference rooms will be converted to offices. The Student Services conference room (SS 171) will be utilized for the Office of Facility Planning and Policy Coordination. The space now occupied by that office (SS 117) will be taken over by the Financial Aid Office. The small conference room in the Administration Building will be taken over for an administrative office.

Computer Center Adds
Microcomputing Specialist

The Computer Center now has a new microcomputing specialist, Mary Sutton, who is available to help faculty and staff with purchase, instruction and trouble-shooting, announced Jim Scanlon, center director.

Ms. Sutton, who began work June 1, previously was employed at the University of Nebraska as a microcomputing instructional specialist. She holds a B.S. in biological sciences from Nebraska and is certified in special education science. Her qualifications as a teacher, plus her course work and experience, led to her first job in computer instruction. Individuals seeking her assistance may call her at the Computer Center, Ext. 7293, during regular working hours, Scanlon said.

Campus Literary Publication
Now Available for Sale

The Pacific Review, the university's literary magazine, produced by faculty and staff in the English Department, is now available for purchase in the Coyote Bookstore. The cost is $4, with a special price of $2 for students.

The 154-page book contains poetry, prose and photographs by university students and professionals. The cover is a reproduction of a German woodcut now in the Los Angeles County Museum of Art. The publication is funded by Instructionally Related Programs fees. Faculty editor is Dr. B. H. Fairchild (English). Larry Kramer (English) is the advisory editor.

Tickets Still Available
For Theatre Productions

Tickets are still available, with one exception, for the two Theatre Arts productions currently on stage. The first Friday night for "Agnes of God," which is Friday, June 5, is sold out. Seats are available for June 6 and the second week, June 10-13. The play is being presented in the Drama Lab, which has limited seating.

The major spring production, "You Can't Take it With You," continues in the Theatre tonight and tomorrow, June 5 and 6. General admission for both plays is $5 general and $2.50 for students and senior citizens. Tickets may be purchased from the Theatre Arts Office, Ext. 7452.
Bountiful servings of good food, a picnic setting and country-bluegrass music are promised for the All-Campus Spring Barbecue Sunday, June 14, announced Doyle Stanssel (Student Services). All members of the campus community and their families are invited to attend. Since only a limited number of tickets are available, early reservations are urged by Dean Stanssel. Tickets, $6 for adults and $2 for children, are available from the Campus Box Office in the Student Union or the Housing Office (Ext. 7405).

The menu includes a choice of barbecue steak or one-half chicken for adults and hamburgers or hot dogs for children. Featured this year will be Laso pinquinto baked beans, grown only in Santa Maria, said Dean Stanssel, who is organizing the event. Cooks this year will include Dr. Robert Detweiler (Academic Affairs), Ed Schneiderhan (Career Placement Center), Dr. Richard Moss (Economics), Dr. Jim Charkins (Economics), Fred Roybal (Plant Operations), Randy Harrell (Student Life), Jack Dexter (Career Placement Center) and Quentin Moses (Public Safety).

Live entertainment will be by Cheyenne, a country-bluegrass group which performs regularly in southern California music festivals and clubs. The music will begin at 4:30 p.m. and the serving line will be open from 5 to 6:30 p.m. The festivities will be in the Commons patio area. Sponsors are the Cal State Associates, the Student Life Department and Serrano Village.

In its first year, the Staff Training and Development Program drew 100 percent plus support from campus employees, according to statistics from Bill Swanson (Personnel) for the Staff Training and Development Committee.

The 32 workshops offered since October attracted an enrollment of 570 employees, all but 10 of them staff. The university currently has about 430 staff employees. For the record, Swanson points out, several people have taken two or three courses, which makes the enrollment total higher than the staff population.

Success of the program, said Swanson, is due in great part to the services of faculty and staff who volunteered their expertise and time as workshop facilitators. Serving without compensation, the workshop leaders included: Dr. Renate Nummela Caine (Education), J. Milton Clark (English), Dr. David Easton (Math), Elaine Everson (Accounting and Finance), Grace Goodrich (Accounting and Finance), Walter Hawkins (Educational Opportunity Program), Dr. Craig Henderson (Student Services), Dr. Irvin Howard (Education), Carlos Marquez (Personnel), Dr. Dorothy Mettee (Communication), Dr. Loralee MacPike (English), Eric McAllister (Marketing and Management Science), Dr. Reginald Price (Physical Education), Sandra Rich (Personnel), Dr. C. E. Tapie Rohm (Information Management), DeShea Rushing (Management), Dr. Rodney Simard (English), Greg Thomson (Public Safety) and Dr. Lynda Warren (Psychology).

Programs included a wide variety from microcomputer fundamentals and communication skills workshops to exercise physiology and CPR courses. In addition six staff members are participating in cross-training and individualized skill building in the new Career Development Opportunity Program on campus. The Specialized Training Program has awarded 48 employees funding for off-campus, job-related training this year.

Swanson invites faculty and staff to contact him with suggestions for future programs or for volunteering to offer a seminar or class in their particular area of expertise.

Going on vacation? Entertaining family from out of state this summer? Interested in saving a few dollars? The Personnel Office (SS 151) has information and coupons for special discounts at many major southern California attractions. For individual or group packages, information is available at the front desk in Personnel.
Professional Development Grants
Awarded to 26 Faculty Members

Grants totaling $34,980 plus assigned time are being awarded to 26 faculty members and librarians for professional development projects during the coming summer and academic year.

The Professional Development Program encourages academic activities related to research, instruction, library projects, development of grant proposals, creativity and other related work activity which will assist in the professional growth of a faculty member or librarian. A special nine-member committee reviews applications and forwards its rankings for funding to the Faculty Affairs Committee and its recommendations for assigned time to the school deans and library director. All full-time, tenure-track faculty are eligible to apply.

The monetary grants awarded this year range from $5921 for supplies and equipment to several hundred dollars for editing bibliographies. The recipients and their projects are:

Dr. Russell Barber (Anthropology), $1850, to continue research into the archaeology of Fairview School, located on campus;

Buckley B. Barrett (Library), $314, to complete the compilation and editing of a cataloguing guide to World Wars I and II;

Dr. Gloria Cowan (Psychology), $727, to study X-rated video cassettes to analyze sexual dominance and inequality;

Dr. John Craig (Chemistry), $3150, for research involving the synthesis of bridgehead beta-chloro derivatives of certain bicyclic amines;

Dr. Stuart Ellins (Psychology), $1613, for taste-aversion research in rats;

Dr. Richard Fehn (Biology), $5921, for supplies and equipment to conduct research of blood and tissue from diabetic mice; part of his ongoing study of diabetes;

Dr. Arlo Harris (Chemistry), $3038, to spend 13 weeks at the University of Queensland in Australia conducting research on the synthesis of several platinum compounds which have potential for anticarcinogenesis activity;

Dr. Paul Heckert (Physics), $2140, for study of variable stars from Kitt Peak National Observatory;

Dr. Kimball Hughes (Math), $650, for mathematical research at UCLA;

Dr. John Kaufman (Communication), $1400, for personal interviews with corporate executives regarding crisis communication;

Dr. Hope Landrine (Psychology), $1450, to continue research in area of psychological testing;

Dr. Ward McAfee (History), $1790, to research Oregon's experiment with a privately run state prison at the turn of the century;

Dr. Arthur Moorefield (Music), $1430, for microfilm reproductions of materials from two German composers of medieval liturgical music;

Dr. Kathy O'Brien and Dr. Ruth Norton (Education), $750, to complete research on teacher decision-making;

Dr. James Okon (Math), $765, to attend a two-week program in comparative algebra at UC Berkeley;

Faculty Grants

Information from Academic Personnel on the faculty professional development grants continues.

Dr. Michael Persell (History), $893, to continue research in Paris on the work of 19th-20th century French biologists;

Johnnie Ann Ralph (Library), $200, to continue compilation of a bibliography on books and articles about the Loch Ness monster;

Mary Anne Schultz (Nursing), $420, to study Kaiser Permanente Hospital's switch from a system of team nursing to a system of primary nursing;

Dr. David Shichor and Dr. Carl Wagoner (Criminal Justice), $1654, to study victimization of elderly persons in the San Bernardino area;

Dr. Alexander Sokoloff (Biology), $620, to complete a research project on Tribolium in anticipation of preparing a grant proposal;

Dr. Robert Stein (Math), $375, to continue research for a textbook, Mathematics, An Exploratory Approach;

Dr. Raymond Torres-Santos (Music), $2000, to attend a workshop on synthesizers in Paris;

Dr. Del LaVerne Watson (Nursing), $930, to study differentiation of functions between nurses with bachelor's, associate and technical degrees;

Dr. Peter Williams (Math), $900, to conduct a three-month math research project in Scotland.

Coyote Golfers
4th in Nation

The Coyote golf team finished its second season fourth in the nation, by capturing fourth place overall in the NCAA Division III national championships May 22 in Delaware, Ohio. Three of the squad were named All-Americans by virtue of their scores in the 72-hole tourney.

The leading Coyote, senior Dave Gutierrez, tied for 16th place among the 120 competitors. Chip Nelson finished 19th and John La Rosa was 24th. Gutierrez finished with a score of 304; Nelson shot a 305 and LaRose a 307. Teammates Gary Oechsle and Chip Haugen shot 313 and 314.

The golf squad moved up in the Division III rating steadily all season, from an initial ranking of 18th to 8th before the championships. The top team in the nation was Cal State, Stanislaus. UC San Diego was second and North Carolina Methodist College third.

All 11 of the Coyote teams finished in the winning column this year, with two having .500 seasons. Intercollegiate athletics is only three years old on the San Bernardino campus.

Singers to Present
Dinner Theatre

The Chamber Singers will present Gilbert and Sullivan's "Patience" as their 1987 dinner theatre production Saturday and Sunday, June 13-14. Once known as the Renaissance festival, the evening includes a banquet dinner and the musical entertainment. "Patience," a sprightly satire, begins at 7:30 p.m. in the Commons. Because the event traditionally sells out, early reservations are recommended. Dr. Loren Filbeck originated and directs the production. The cost is $25 per person.
Congratulations to Marianne Bencomo-Jasso (Communication) and her husband, Robert, on the birth of a son, Carlo Anton, May 5. The baby, who weighed 7 pounds, 1 ounce, has a sister, Dijo.

Sympathy to Cecilia McCarron (Alumni Affairs) on the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Marquez May 28 in San Bernardino. Services were Monday at St. Anthony’s Church in San Bernardino.

Sympathy to Dr. Russell Barber (Anthropology) and Joanna Roche (Alumni Affairs) on the death of his father, Ralph Barber, April 30 in Bennington, VT.

ROTC Changes

Unit Command

Maj. Stephen J. Heynen, who has been involved with the Army ROTC unit on campus since his student days here, has been transferred to Command and General Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth, Kan. At transfer of leadership ceremonies May 19, Capt. Thomas Zeugner became officer in charge of the campus unit, which has an enrollment of approximately 50 cadets.

Capt. Zeugner was transferred here two years ago from the Longhorn Army Ammunition Plant in Marshall, Tex. He was involved in ROTC as a student at the Virginia Military Academy, where he earned his B.A. in English. He also has a M.S. in criminal justice administration from Troy State University in Alabama.

Because of the growth in the program, two additional officers will be transferred here this summer, Capt. Zeugner said. The unit also has two sergeants on staff, Sgt. Lee Fredrickson and Sgt. John Richardson.

Heynen, who earned his B.A. in psychology in 1975 and his M.B.A. in 1983, has been in the Army since 1975. He returned to the ROTC unit here four years ago and has been officer in charge the past two years. At his new assignment, he will receive advanced military schooling.

John Craig Heads Faculty Senate

Dr. John Craig (Chemistry) is the 1987-88 chair of the Faculty Senate. He and the other officers were elected by the Senate May 12. Also serving on the Executive Committee are Dr. Lance Masters (Marketing, Management Science and Information Management), vice chair; and Dr. Russell Barber (Anthropology), secretary.

Serving as the school election officers will be: Dr. Masters, for Business and Public Administration; Dr. Alvin Wolf, Education; Dr. Daniel Whitaker (Foreign Languages), Humanities; Dr. Paul Vicknair (Math), Natural Sciences; and Dr. Michael Weiss (Psychology), Social and Behavioral Sciences.

Dr. Craig, who now serves on the Administrative Council by virtue of his position, also will be the first alternate to the CSU Academic Senate. Dr. Masters is second alternate.

Faculty Vision Plan Enrollment Dates Set

Initial enrollment dates for faculty in Unit 3 to sign up for the Blue Shield vision care plan will be Mondays, June 8, 15, 22 and 29, the Personnel Office has announced. Coverage for people who enroll during June will begin August 1. Faculty who sign up after June 29 will have a later date for the coverage to be effective. The employer-paid vision care plan is underwritten by Blue Shield and administered by Medical Eye Services of California. Services received through a nonparticipating provider are reimbursed on another schedule.
Community Service

Dr. Russell Barber (Anthropology) spoke about "The Fairview School Archaeological Project" at a luncheon meeting of the San Bernardino County Schools Library Network May 21.

Dr. Stella Clark (Spanish) was interviewed on radio station KDIF in Riverside May 11 about the importance of literature for learning language and culture.

Dr. Robert Detweiler (Academic Affairs) has been named to the Executive Committee and was appointed chairman of the policy committee for the Arrowhead United Way. He also made a presentation, "Update on Cal State," for the Rotary Club of Lake Arrowhead May 12.

Neal Larson, student of Janice Golojuch (Art), won second place in Fontana's fourth annual Photography show with his photograph "Sierra Illusion." The work was exhibited in the Fontana Performing Arts Center during May.

Dr. Irvin Howard (Education) discussed "The Hatch Amendment: Abusive Interpretations Can Destroy Education Programs" at the May 20 meeting of the Uptown Exchange Club of San Bernardino.

Dr. Fred E. Jondt (Communication) judged the state finals of the public speaking contest sponsored by the Native Sons of the Golden West May 18 in Ontario.

Dr. Janice Layton (Nursing) spoke to nursing students at five community colleges on "Pursuing a Baccalaureate Degree" during winter and spring quarters.

Dr. Ted McDowell (Geography) spoke on "Hazards Associated with Earthquakes, High Ground Water and Liquefaction in San Bernardino" to representatives of the San Bernardino Valley Municipal Water District, the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation and local businesses May 27 in San Bernardino.

Dr. Cindy Paxton (Health Science and Human Ecology) spoke to five sections of senior students at Corona High School on "AIDS: So What's My Risk?"

Dr. Tom Pierce (Social and Behavioral Sciences) was elected chair of the supervisory committee of the San Bernardino County Central Credit Union.

Dr. Alexander Sokoloff (Biology) discussed employment opportunities in more than 200 biology fields during an interview on radio station KDIF in Riverside May 26. He also lectured and demonstrated the anatomy of the flatworm Planaria and the annelid Lumbricus to fifth and sixth grade GATE students at Roosevelt School in San Bernardino May 14. In a May 28 visit to the same group he demonstrated the organ systems of the grasshopper and the starfish.

Jo Ann Von Wald (Records) was elected to the Board of Directors of the San Bernardino Community Scholarship Federation at its annual meeting May 4. Her term expires in 1990.

Library to Sell 'Treasures' June 11

A few specially priced treasures will be among hundreds of new and used books available at the Library's book sale Thursday, June 11, reports John Tibbals (Patron Services). Most of the books will be sold for 50 cents for hardcover, 30 cents for large paperbacks, 20 cents for small paperbacks and 10 cents each for loose magazines and pamphlets.

The sale, held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the north end of the basement of the Pfau Library, will end with the traditional clearance sale ($3 per bag) from 4 to 5 p.m. Entrance to the sale area is from the stairs to the basement. All proceeds are used to purchase new books for the Library, Tibbals said.
Professional Activities

Dr. Robert Blackey, Dr. Elliott Barkan and Dr. Michael Persell (all History) are in Trenton, NJ, June 2-8, participating in the grading of Advanced Placement examinations in European and American history for the Educational Testing Service.

Dr. Robert Blackey (History) worked with social studies teachers at Victor Valley High School May 27 on teaching and testing techniques and critical thinking skills.

Dr. Jill Buroker (Philosophy) led a discussion on her paper, "On Kant's Proof of the Existence of Material Objects," at a meeting of philosophers and graduate students from UC San Diego, the University of Southern California and the Claremont Graduate School May 3.

Dr. Louise Burton (Education) read a paper, "Developing Local Norms: The Peabody Picture Vocabulary Test and Hispanic-American Children," at the international conference of the Council for Exceptional Children April 22 in Chicago. At the conference, she was elected chair of the College Caucus of the Teacher Education Division of CEC. The term begins in September.

Dr. Katharine Busch (Education) co-presented a workshop, "Reading and Writing Relationships: The Instructional Connection," at the International Reading Association conference May 6 in Anaheim.

Dr. Stella Clark (Spanish) has an article, "La realidad desfamiliarizada en la poesia de Ramon Lopez Velarde," accepted for publication in Hispanic, the journal of the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese.

Dr. Margaret Cooney (Education) has an article, "Education and Job Training Needs of Hispanic Students," accepted for publication by ERIC Clearinghouse on Urban Education. Another article by Dr. Cooney and Dr. T. Patrick Mullen (Education), "Student Attitudes Toward Disabled Persons," has been accepted for publication by ERIC Clearinghouse on Handicapped and Gifted Children.

Dr. Stuart Ellins (Psychology) co-authored a paper, "A Case for Using Intragastric Infusions Rather than Intraperitoneal Injections of Lithium Chloride in Taste-Aversion Research," presented at the annual meeting of the Midwestern Psychological Association May 8 in Chicago. The paper was presented by Silvia Von Kluge, an M.A. graduate in psychology who now is a Ph.D. candidate at Michigan State University. He and Ms. Von Kluge have another article, "Pre-exposure and Extinction Effects of Lithium Chloride-Induced Taste-Aversions for Spatially Contiguous Auditory Food Cues in Rats," published in the current volume of Behavioral Neuroscience.

Dr. Michael Grant (Education) spoke to the High Desert Black Educators Association May 9 in Victorville on "Who Will Teach the Black Children?"

Dr. Ellen Gruenbaum (Anthropology) presented a paper, "Grappling with the Female Circumcision Issue: Feminist Movements and Health Policy," at Yale University's symposium on Clitoridectomy and Infibulation in Africa.

Dr. Mildred Henry (Education) presented her research on minority re-entry women at the Professional Organization for Women in Education and Re-entry (POWER) conference May 16 in Long Beach. She also participated in commencement exercises at the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff May 9.

Dr. Irvin Howard (Education) presented a paper, "Increasing Challenges to Texts and Curriculum: Censorship Growth in America," at the 32nd annual conference of the International Reading Association May 5 in Anaheim. He also presented three workshops on implementing critical thinking skills activities in subject-matter classrooms May 22 for the faculty at Redlands High School. Dr. Howard will be the keynote speaker for the annual conference of the Early Adolescent Education Association in October in Chicago.
Dr. Paul Johnson (Philosophy) has a paper, "Death, Identity and the Possibility of a Hobbesian Justification for World Government," accepted for publication next year in a volume of studies sponsored by the Tampere Peace Research Institute, Finland.

A drawing by John Nava (Art) has been acquired by the Grand Rapids Museum of Art for its permanent collection. He also has four paintings in the inaugural exhibition at the Scott Hansen Gallery in New York City. Two more pieces will be included in "Inland Empire Strikes Back," a show which opens June 20 at the Riverside Art Museum. Nava discussed the university's Art Gallery program at the regional meeting of the California Arts Council May 6 in San Bernardino.

The University Art Gallery has received a grant of $3000 from the County Arts Foundation to underwrite a catalog for an exhibition of figurative paintings scheduled for the fall, according to John Nava (Art).

Dr. Kathy O'Brien (Education) was appointed to the steering committee of the new Whole Language Special Interest Group at the national conference of the International Reading Association May 4-7 in Anaheim. She also conducted inservice training on integrating children's literature into the curriculum May 22 at Tokay Elementary School in Fontana.

Dr. Thomas C. Timmreck (Health Science and Human Ecology) has been appointed to the Publication Advisory Committee for The Healthcare Forum, the journal of the Association of Western Hospitals.

Dr. Clifford Singh (Physical Education) and two of his senior students, Meg Miles and Linda Barden, presented a sports medicine workshop, "Aerobics, Right or Wrong, from Theory to Practice," at the sixth annual Southwest Dance, Movement and Arco Sports Workshop May 15 in Riverside. Dr. Singh also presented a paper, "The Kinesiological Applications to Dance Movements," at the same conference.

Dr. Raymond Torres-Santos (Music) has been commissioned by the San Juan Dance Company to write a ballet to be premiered next December. He was featured in an article in the Audition section of the May issue of Down Beat Magazine.

Philip West (Music) will be orchestra manager and will provide sound reinforcement and recording services for the Northwood Orchestra Festival of the Lakes in July and August in Petoskey and Harbor Springs, Mich. Selections from the festival will be broadcast by WCMU at Central Michigan University.

Dr. Robert West (Education, emeritus) presented a workshop, "Recent Developments in School Law," May 15 at the San Bernardino County Superintendent of Schools Office.
