January 22 1988

Friday Bulletin

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin

Recommended Citation
https://scholarworks.lib.csusb.edu/fridaybulletin/871

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives – California State University San Bernardino at CSUSB ScholarWorks. It has been accepted for inclusion in Friday Bulletin by an authorized administrator of CSUSB ScholarWorks. For more information, please contact scholarworks@csusb.edu.
BULLETIN

January 22, 1988
California State University, San Bernardino

Drs. Clarke, Pendleton To Represent University

Dr. K. Michael Clarke (Public Administration) and Dr. Ronald K. Pendleton (Education) will represent the university in the San Bernardino Chamber of Commerce outstanding professor program.

Their selection was announced by Dr. Michael Weiss, chair of the Outstanding Professor Selection Committee, which chose the honorees.

The chamber each year sponsors a breakfast honoring faculty from Cal State and San Bernardino Valley College.

Since joining the university in 1976, Dr. Clarke has held a number of academic administrative positions in addition to his teaching responsibilities. He currently is director of the Graduate Studies Program for the School of Business and Public Administration and is past chair of the Department of Public Administration. He is in his second term as secretary of the Faculty Senate and is on the council for the Inland Area Chapter of the American Society for Public Administration.

Dr. Clarke has received three school research awards and three meritorious performance and professional promise awards. During 1984, he spent a semester as a visiting professor at the Queensland Institute of Technology in Brisbane, Australia.

A native of Ireland, he received his B.A. and M.A. at University College, Dublin before earning his Ph.D. in political science at the University of Georgia.

He has published numerous papers and is the co-author of a book, Controversies in Environmental Policy.

Dr. Pendleton, who joined the School of Education faculty in 1981, is currently associate professor and coordinator of vocational teacher education.

He is responsible for the development of a competency-based model curriculum for the professional education of vocational and occupational instructors. Currently he is working on a series of 15 training modules for courses he has developed.

He has been co-chair of vocational education advisory committees for both the campus and the San Bernardino city schools and active in a similar committee for the Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of the San Bernardino City Private Industry Council Task Force on Vocational Training Competencies, the Consortium of Community College Vocational/Occupational Deans and the Inland Empire Vocational Education Directors.

He is a past president of the Inland Empire Symphony League and past secretary of the Inland Empire Symphony Association.

Pendleton received his B.A. from Humboldt State College, his M.A. from Cal State, Long Beach and his Ph.D. in education/technology from Arizona State University.

Joint Ph.D. With Zagazig Expanded

The university has implemented its second joint Ph.D. program with Zagazig University in Egypt, announced Dr. Amer El-Ahraf (Academic Resources).

Dr. Ahmad Mubarak is here, studying in the School of Education under the co-supervision of Dr. Andy Schultz.

The joint Ph.D. program, also known as “channel system,” is financed by the Ministry of Higher Education in Egypt, explained Dr. El-Ahraf. “Each doctoral candidate has two Ph.D. supervisors; one from Zagazig University and the second from Cal State.”

The student spends two years at Cal State, after completing the master’s degree, course work and the initial research at Zagazig. The research is continued and the dissertation written while at Cal State.

The two Ph.D. supervisors visit each other’s campus, at the expense of the Ministry of Higher Education in Egypt, to discuss the student’s progress. The Cal State professor travels to Zagazig at the end of the two-year period to participate in examining the student. The Ph.D. degree is granted by Zagazig University.

Zagazig University is composed of 13 faculties (or colleges) and includes all of the schools and continued on next page
Attrition Low For Winter

Early figures from winter quarter registration show the smallest attrition from fall quarter in the past six years, reports Registrar JoAnn Von Wald.

As of the second day of registration, 8012 students had signed up for classes. The figure is only a 3.6 percent drop from fall quarter. Traditionally, fall quarter enrollment is the highest in the school year.

The full-time equivalent (FTE) for winter quarter is 6020.7, which is a 3.9 percent drop from fall quarter. Both head count and FTE are double-digit increases over winter quarter a year earlier. The number of students is up 11.7 percent and the FTE is 13.5 percent greater.

Winter quarter figures will continue to fluctuate, rising until the last day to add classes and then dropping until census date.

Library Book Sale Set for Feb. 4

Hundreds of new and used books on all topics will be on sale at bargain rates at the Library’s book sale Thursday, Feb. 4.

Although a few treasures will be specially priced, most of the books will be sold at 50 cents for hardcover, 30 cents for large paperbacks, 20 cents for small paperbacks and 10 cents for loose magazines and pamphlets.

The sale will be from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. in the north end of the basement of Pfau Library, near Audio-Visual Services and the elevators. From 4 to 5:30 p.m., there will be a clearance sale of remaining books at $3 per bag.

Access to the sale area is via the stairs to the basement. All proceeds from the sale will be used to purchase new books for the Library.

Chancellor Comments On Governor’s Proposed Budget

Chancellor W. Ann Reynolds expressed pleasure at Gov. Deukmejian’s “continued support of much needed and well deserved improvements in both our faculty and non-faculty salaries,” in her analysis of the document presented to the Legislature.

“The recommended increases of 4.7 percent for faculty and 4 percent for non-faculty, although delayed until Jan. 1, 1989, reflect the governor’s positive commitment toward providing compensation that enables our system to remain competitive in attracting and retaining excellent faculty and staff,” she said. The governor also provided a separate 1 percent for salary inequities.

The governor’s proposed budget of nearly $1.5 billion is approximately $92 million less than the Board of Trustees’ request.

Included in Deukmejian’s proposal are $2.5 million for faculty research, $500,000 for new faculty and $750,000 for intersegmental cooperation to enhance teacher education and facilitate community college transfers to the CSU.

Eliminated were $16.8 million for annual merit increases for non-faculty employees, $8 million for student computing workstations and $3.9 million for off-campus centers. “The absence of funding for these and other items threatens to undermine the many positive steps taken by the governor and Legislature during the last several years," said Reynolds.

The governor's capital outlay budget of $138 million is short of the $193 million requested by the Board of Trustees, but will enable the system to address the construction, renovation and equipping of new buildings to serve the increasing CSU enrollment, which now totals 354,205 students, noted Chancellor Reynolds.

Dr. Dale Ride, chair of the Board of Trustees, expressed appreciation for the strong support to education demonstrated by the governor and Legislature but said he hoped that continued negotiations will result in revisions "that are mutually acceptable to all parties."

Phi Kappa Phi
Seeks Applicants
For Fellowships

The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi annually awards 50 graduate fellowships of $6000 for the first year of graduate or professional study, announced Dr. Edward Erler (Political Science), in seeking faculty encouragement for student applications.

The completed application forms, with faculty recommendations, must be submitted to Dr.
Erler, the local chapter's fellowship chair, by Feb. 15. The chapter, which will nominate one student for the national award, also will award a $300 fellowship.

The awards are made to graduating seniors and must be for the first year of graduate study. Criteria considered in the selection include scholastic achievement, test scores (such as Graduate Record Exam, Law School or Medical College Admission Tests), transcripts, honors and enrichment programs, participation in university activities, faculty evaluations, promise of success in graduate study and career goals.

Phi Kappa Phi is the only major national scholastic honor society which recognizes academic excellence in all disciplines. The fellowship program has awarded more than 825 scholarships and 325 honorable mention awards (currently $500) since 1932.

Further information on the program is available from Dr.
Erler, Ext. 7238.

John Dean
Speaks Here

John Dean, the former White House counsel who exposed the Watergate scandal, will contrast the Iran-Contra affair with the events of the Nixon administration in a talk at 8 p.m., Monday, Jan. 25 in the Upper Commons.

Dean has contended the Iran-Contra scandal was more serious than Watergate because it involved matters of national securi ty. His talk is based upon his book, Blind Ambition, an auto­ bio graphical account of his involvement in Watergate. Dean currently is an investment banker in Los Angeles.

The lecture, sponsored by the Intellectual Life and Visiting Scholars Committee, is free to Cal State faculty, staff and students. General admission for the public is $4. Passes and tickets are available at the Associated Students Box Office in the Student Union.

19 Students
In Who's Who

The 1988 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will include the names of 19 Cal State, San Bernardino students.

Named as outstanding leaders
were: Elva Baeza, Heidi Becker, Sandra Boyd-Flanagan, Paulette
Brown, Rob Davis, Gerald Duncan,
Mike DeGrasse, Wanda Freeman,
Dan Healy, Steve Hekman, Jeff
Lafrenz, Patrick Luzier, Sharon
Martinez-Headrick, Rajean Mayberry, Catherine Mele, Richard
Mercado, Penni Overstreet, David
Pavao and Lannette Scines.

Selection was based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for contin­ ed success.

Extension Plans
AIDS Conference

Critical issues involved in confronting AIDS and STDs will be explored Feb. 4-5 at a conference co­ sponsored by Extended Education, the School of Natural Sciences and the Intellectual Life and Visiting Scholars Committee.

The first day is geared for educators and the second for mental health professionals. Approximately 250 are expected each day.

Keynote speaker Feb. 4 will be Dr. William Yarber, professor of applied health sciences at Indiana University. The free, public lecture, beginning at 4:30 p.m., is preceded by a reception at 3:45 p.m. Both are in the SUMP. Dr. Yarber will speak on "School- Based AIDS Education: Politics, Issues and Responses."

Dr. Cynthia Paxton (Health Science and Human Ecology) is conference coordinator.

19 Students
In Who's Who

The 1988 edition of Who's Who
Among Students in American Universities and Colleges will include the names of 19 Cal State,
San Bernardino students.

Named as outstanding leaders
were: Elva Baeza, Heidi Becker,
Sandra Boyd-Flanagan, Paulette
Brown, Rob Davis, Gerald Duncan,
Mike DeGrasse, Wanda Freeman,
Dan Healy, Steve Hekman, Jeff
Lafrenz, Patrick Luzier, Sharon
Martinez-Headrick, Rajean May­
berry, Catherine Mele, Richard
Mercado, Penni Overstreet, David
Pavao and Lannette Scines.

Selection was based on academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular
activities and potential for contin­
ed success.

Extension Plans
AIDS Conference

Critical issues involved in confronting AIDS and STDs will be explored Feb. 4-5 at a conference co­
sponsored by Extended Education,
the School of Natural Sciences and
the Intellectual Life and Visiting
Scholars Committee.

The first day is geared for
educators and the second for mental health professionals. Approximately 250 are expected each day.

Keynote speaker Feb. 4 will be
Dr. William Yarber, professor of
applied health sciences at Indiana University. The free, public lecture,
beginning at 4:30 p.m., is preceded by a reception at 3:45 p.m. Both are
in the SUMP. Dr. Yarber will speak
on "School- Based AIDS Education: Politics, Issues and Responses."

Dr. Cynthia Paxton (Health Science and Human Ecology) is
conference coordinator.
Sympathy

The university community extends deepest sympathy to Dr. James D. Thomas (Political Science) on the death of his wife, Arlene Roberts, Jan. 10. Services were Jan. 13 in Apple Valley. Memorials may be made to a scholarship in her name in the Cal State, San Bernardino Foundation.

Deepest sympathy also is extended to Mendy Wannan (Extended Education) on the death of her father-in-law, James Warman, Jan. 9 in Hesperia. Memorial services were Jan. 12.

Congratulations

Congratulations are extended to Tami Bakewell (Student Life) and her husband, Galen, on the birth of their first child, a daughter, Claire White Bakewell, born Jan. 12 in Riverside. The infant weighed 7 pounds 4 ounces.

Community Service

Dr. Russell Barber (Anthropology) presented a talk to the San Bernardino Historical Society Jan. 6 titled "The Fairview School and its Social Context."

Dr. Margaret Cooney (Education) spoke to the Inland Area Head Injury Support Group in San Bernardino Dec. 15 on "Injury to the Brain: The Issues, the Answers, Meeting the Challenge."

Dr. Robert Detweiler (Academic Affairs) made presentations to the Kiwanis Club of Rancho Cucamonga on "How Revolutionary Was the American Revolution?" on Dec. 11 and to the Optimist Club of San Bernardino on "Update on Cal State" on Jan. 12.

Dr. Amer El-Ahraf (Academic Resources, Health Science and Human Ecology) has been appointed by San Bernardino Mayor Evlyn Wilcox to the Fine Arts Commission.

Dr. Julius Kaplan (Art, Graduate Programs) lectured to docents of the Los Angeles County Museum of Art Jan. 4 on "David Hockney, His Sources and Context."

Dr. James L. Mulvihill (Geography) has been appointed to the San Bernardino County General Plan Review Committee.

Employment Opportunities

Applications will be accepted until 2 p.m. on the dates listed. Current information on employment opportunities is available through a 24-hour hotline at Ext. 7752, which is updated at 2 p.m., Fridays.

Calendar

January

25 Monday
Faculty lecture, "Fantasy Theme Analysis of the Communication of Prison Inmates," by Dr. Dorothy Mettee, assistant professor of communication, at noon, PL 241. Free.

25 Monday
Lecture, "Blind Ambition," by John Dean, former counsel to President Nixon, at 8 p.m., Upper Commons. Free to Cal State faculty, staff and students; $4 to public. Tickets and passes at Associated Students Box Office.

28 Thursday
Lecture, "The Humanities: Keys to Change," by Dr. Juanita Mantovani, dean of undergraduate studies, Cal State, Los Angeles, at 12:10 p.m., front of Library.

28 Thursday
Illustrated lecture, "The Magic of Humanities and the Humanity of Magic," by Harry Blackstone, Jr., internationally known magician, at 1 p.m., SUMP. Free.

28 Thursday
Lecture, "The Arts and the 3 Rs: An Essential Partnership," by Joan Mondale, arts advocate and potter, at 8 p.m., SUMP. Free.

February

3 Wednesday
Faculty lecture, "Diabetes and Obesity: What is the Connection?" by Dr. Richard Fehn, associate professor of biology, at noon, Sycamore Room. Free.

3 Wednesday
Lecture, "Viewing Environmental Education: Rewind, Play, Fast Forward," by Dr. Cheryl Charles, national director of Project WILD, at 4 p.m., Recital Hall. Free.

4 Thursday
Lecture, "School-Based AIDS Education: Politics, Issues and Responses," by Dr. William Yarber, professor of applied health sciences at Indiana University, at 4:30 p.m., SUMP; preceded by reception at 3:45 p.m. Free.

4 Thursday
Lecture, "Children as Amateur Psychologists," by Dr. Patricia Miller, department of psychology, University of Florida, at 7 p.m., Sycamore Room. Free.

The California State University, San Bernardino BULLETIN is published by the Publications Office on the first and third Fridays of each month. Items for publication must be submitted in writing by the prior Friday.

Edna Steinman, Editor (Ext. 7814) Vol. 22 No. 10