Operation
Santa 1989

Help bring holiday cheer to needy families in the San Bernardino area as participants of Operation Santa 1989. The project, coordinated by the Office of Extended Education, is a campuswide effort to assist area residents who are less fortunate. Working through various community groups and United Way agencies, project coordinators have identified needy families, as well as entire organizations who need extra assistance at this time of year.

Some of the targeted groups include: Shandin Hills Behavior Therapy Center, a 29-bed unit housing patients with mental disorders; Option House, a shelter for battered women and their children; Inland Area Native American Association, an agency for the welfare and interest of local native Americans; and Candleliters, an organization which supports families of children stricken with cancer.

You can help in many ways:

- Collect canned and non-perishable food items;
- Provide a full Christmas dinner for a family;
- Collect good used clothing or purchase new items;
- Bake holiday "goodies";
- Donate a live Christmas tree and/or the trimmings;
- Adopt a specific family or organization to support this season; or
- Make a monetary contribution (Checks payable to CSUS Foundation, Attention: Operation Santa).

Call the Office of Extended Education at Ext. 5975 for more information on how you can help. Operation Santa participation continues through Wednesday, Dec. 20.

Holiday Greetings!

President and Mrs. Anthony H. Evans extend season’s greetings to everyone in the university community.

"As the holiday season approaches, Lois and I want to wish each of you the happiest of holiday seasons. We continue to be grateful for your friendship and support."

December Checks to be Available

Although the university will be closed between Christmas and New Year's, December paychecks will be available on Friday, Dec. 29, according to Don Sapronetti (Accounting).

Individuals who wish to pick up paychecks on that date may do so between 9:30-11 a.m. from a designated representative of their school or department. Area administrators will notify their employees as to who will be responsible for passing out paychecks and as to the location where checks will be available.

Checks not disbursed on Friday, Dec. 29, will be picked up at the Bursar's window at 11 a.m., Tuesday, Jan. 2, by the regular designees from schools and departments.

Photographic Art Exhibit
Opens Jan. 8

Vibrant, humorous and innovative photographs of Patrick Nagatani and Andree Tracey will be on view at the University Art Gallery from Monday, Jan. 8 through Friday, Feb. 2, 1990. The exhibit is entitled "Nagatani and Tracey Collaborations: 1983-1989," and represents the artists' very recent pieces on Polaroid's unique 50x60 cm camera system—single images, diptychs and triptychs. One image, which measures 2x4 meters, was created on Polaroid's roomsized camera located at the Museum of Fine Arts in Boston.

Nagatani works with conventional and instant materials as well as mixed media, always trying to stretch photographic conventions. His works have been exhibited worldwide with one-person and group shows in Paris, London, Amsterdam and Belgrade.

Tracey is a widely exhibited painter who currently teaches at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles. Her work in col...
