Serrano Village, distances the chance to rent a room in offering faculty and staff who drive long quarter, while a single occupancy is $450. on campus with the option to spend the their assigned room, where they may keep a flat rate per quarter for weekday use of accommodations will be available, nor is renting for only a night or two, Slosted says, because “we don’t have the staffing to ‘turn’ the room around quickly enough.” Use of the Village Square pool is recorded as cash contributions in the year’s total to $1,373,321. The Partnership 2000 development campaign has booked $750,000 in multi-week. No weekend accommodations will be available, nor is renting for only a night or two, Slosted says, because “we don’t have the staffing to ‘turn’ the room around quickly enough.” Use of the Village Square pool is included in the package, and residents also may opt for phone and cable TV services. The new program, says Norm Slosted, “at the same time,” adds, Slosted, “there’s an economic revolution (going on) that’s more powerful than the political revolution of 1910,” Glicken remarks. “The country is moving toward more democracy and more effective government,” which has yet to develop a social ‘safety net,’ such as a food distribution system and guaranteed medical care, he adds. “There are so many hungry people that are drug sniffing to deaden the pain.”

The Commuter Housing Oasis Package gives commuters a daily “reentry” to campus with the option to spend the night for a fee of $10. Residents will pay a flat rate per quarter for weekday use of their assigned room, where they may keep their personal belongings. A double occupancy room rents for $300 per quarter, while a single occupancy is $450. The new program, says Norm Slosted, director (Housing), will allow his office to use the residence halls in non-traditional ways and provide better service for other segments of the campus population. hus a program will “expand our market during a season of shortfalls due to decreased freshman enrollments and increased tuition costs.” Access to the room is 10 a.m.-10 p.m., Monday-Thursday, and 10 a.m.-4:30 p.m. on Friday. No weekend accommodations will be available, nor is renting for only a night or two, Slosted says, because “we don’t have the staffing to ‘turn’ the room around quickly enough.” Use of the Village Square pool is included in the package, and residents also may opt for phone and cable TV services.
