PRESIDENT MAKES BUDGET RECOMMENDATION PICKS

President Anthony Evans approved $333,000 in new budget items for the 1996-97 fiscal year as well as the proposal to balance the university's budget over the next two years.

After recommendations made by the Strategic Planning Steering Council in a May 10 memo, Evans approved an 800 MZ radio base station and backbone for public safety, an online public access catalog replacement for the library and funds for a school-based development officer for humanities and the Coachella Valley Campus. He also approved reduction of the general fund budget for employee benefits by $570,000, insurance claims by $50,000 and utilities by $100,000.

Division budgets will also be reduced as long as senior managers from each area make sure that these reductions don't adversely affect operations, services or activities in another division, says Evans. Plans are to cut $102,000 from the academic affairs budget, $27,800 from student services, $43,800 from administration and finance, $7,000 from university relations and $19,400 from information resources and technology.

The reductions are intended to put the campus toward its two-year, balanced budget goal. But the steering council, in its original memo to the president, said that the spring quarter drop in full-time student enrollment could throttle the effort. "Understanding the causes for enrollment declines and redrawing them," said the memo, "is a matter of urgent priority for the CSUSB campus community."

Items other than enrollment that the council considered while examining the projected $1,322,387 deficit for 1996-97, were the potential impacts of the 1996-97 budget act, the fiscal year 1995-96 annualized fee and the reclassification costs for information technology series employees.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROF NAMED SCHOOL DEAN

State University of New York educator John Conley has been appointed dean of Cal State's School of Social and Behavioral Sciences. He will take over for Eileen Gruenbaum, who has served as the school's acting dean for the last two years.
